Recurring Subscribe-and-Save purchases and subscription renewals are not currently eligible.

Can I use my existing Amazon.com account on AmazonSmile?

Yes, you use the same account on Amazon.com and AmazonSmile. Your shopping cart, Wish List, wedding or baby registry, and other account settings are also the same.

How do I select a charitable organization to support when shopping on AmazonSmile?

On your first visit to AmazonSmile, you need to select a charitable organization [SDAG] to receive donations from eligible purchases before you begin shopping. We will remember your selection, and then every eligible purchase you make on AmazonSmile will result in a donation.

How much of my purchase does Amazon donate?

The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases. The purchase price is the amount paid for the item minus any rebates and excluding shipping & handling, gift-wrapping fees, taxes, or service charges.

SDAG Meeting Minutes

160 Calle Magdalena, Encinitas, CA 92024

The meeting was held on September 22, 2014 at 10:30 a.m.

Officers Present: Carol Korfin, Karen Fidel, Susan Schulte, Linda Melemed, Linda Melvin, Terry Oshrin, Pamela Taylor Waldman, Cindy Alcoset, Jill Treadwell Svendsen, Sharon Hoffman, Julie Bubar, Grace Swanson, Lynn Ely, Rita Hohweiler-Cecil, and Dovora Safran. Special guest: Laura Lowenstein

Officers Absent: Dolores Renner, Aleksandra Owczarek, and Lin Holzinger

Call to order at 10:37 a.m.

Motion: Karen Fidel motioned and Linda Melvin seconded to approve the August 25, 2014 Board Meeting Minutes. The Minutes were originally acknowledged and reviewed by the board members via e-mail.

Motion passed: In Favor 13; Against 0; Abstain 0.

Treasurer's Report - Linda Melemed

There was a discussion of increasing expenses and decreasing income becoming a concern. Linda noted that sales were up for August and September, and we would end the year with a small profit.

Linda suggested that the financials show the membership income in the proper fiscal year per year, so that it can be tracked for budgeting purposes. For deposits of membership income made in the prior fiscal year, they will be placed on the balance sheet as a prepaid until September of the proper fiscal year.

Motion: Karen Fidel motioned that membership income will be recognized in the proper fiscal year. Lynn Ely seconded.

Motion passed: In Favor 13; Against 0; Abstain 0.

Motion: Linda Melvin motioned that we relocate our checking and savings accounts to US Bank in Encinitas, so that we can use the conference room at the bank for board meetings at no charge starting in January 2015. It was agreed that Cheryl Ehlers would not need to approve the move as she is no longer an officer or member of the board of directors of San Dieguito Art Guild, even though she is listed on the California nonprofit organization website as President from 2012.

Devora Safran seconded the motion.

Motion passed: In Favor 13; Against 0; Abstain 0.

An informal vote was taken for the dates of the next three board meetings to be held on October 27, November 17, and December 22, 2014 at the current location.

President's Items:

1) The conflict of interest forms were passed out and signed by board members. Susan Schulte will file them at the Off Track Gallery.

2) Rita Holweiler-Cecil was introduced as the new Jobs Chair.

Motion: Grace Swanson motioned for Rita Holweiler-Cecil as Jobs Chair. Jill Treadwell Svendsen seconded. Motion passed: In Favor 13; Against 0; Abstain 0

3) A new 5 year lease for the Off Track Gallery has been prepared by Donna Nelson and sent to Carol Korfin. We will sign the lease and send a financial statement with it back. Carol noted that SDAG is supposed to spend 2% of gross income on advertising or the management can bill us for that amount.

4) Laura Lowenstein was introduced as the Cultural Tourism representative of Encinitas. The upcoming Dia de Los Muertos Celebration is at the library on Saturday, November 1st from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Laura is requesting that SDAG support this event by donating $250 to sponsor one of the workshops.

Motion: Grace Swanson motioned that SDAG donate $250 to cultural event at the Encinitas Library on November 1st for educational community need. Terry Oshrin seconded. Motion passed: In Favor 13; Against 0; Abstain 0.

Old Business:

1) SDAG 2015 Calendar-Grace Swanson brought in finished rough draft for informal proofreading by the board. The logo contest was won by Grace (the only one to submit a logo) and received $25 gift certificate to the gallery. Laura Lowenstein will also proofread the calendar.

2) Lighting-Pam Taylor Waldman discussed the approved lighting for the gallery. The first of three installments will cost $808.34 to be done immediately.

Website upgrade: Pam researched (along with Jill Treadwell Svendsen) the top 10 scheduling websites and recommends Calendar Whiz. The website is similar to the gallery's existing website and costs about $25/month, $247/year. We will get a 30 day free trial. The present website is not working for our needs and needs to be updated, plus the company is out of business.

Motion: Pam T. Waldman motioned for the gallery to purchase new scheduling software for the Off Track Gallery. Devora Safran seconded. Motion passed: In Favor 13; Against 0; Abstain 0.

3) Soravia Paintings-Grace Swanson said a chairperson still needs to be assigned. There will be a later discussion on this topic.

Committee Chair Reports

Membership-Karen Fidel said over $10,000 came in for membership, since it is due this month for new and renewing membership.

Gallery Chairs - Linda Melvin/Terry Oshrin and Pamela Waldman discussed the upgrade of the card racks, which includes purchasing one new card rack, refurbish two card racks, repainting of the doors for the card racks, and new name tags for artists. The old wire card racks will be removed. The gallery committee will oversee the initial project and rotation of cards, along with updated 2D Wrap Agreement Form. Barb Mille' will oversee the artists' cards after the project is done.

Motion: Linda Melvin motioned and Jill Treadwell Svendsen seconded to approve about $200 for painting the doors, and cleaning old card racks and purchasing one new card rack. Motion passed: In Favor 13, Against 0, Abstain 0.

Newsletter-Sharon Hoffman The November schedule of events was passed around for discussion. Pam Waldman brought in gallery calendar for December/January "sitting" sign-ups.

Next jurying date: November 19th at 9:00 a.m. at Linda Melvin's home.

Programs-Julie Bubar passed around flier of next Encinitas library event. Figurative painter, Richard Hawk, will demo his collective work on Oct 12 from 2:00 - 4:00 p.m. The demo by James Watts had 34 in attendance on August 17th, and Carina Bana's demo on September 21st had 44 RSVP's and 34 attended.

PR Chair-Grace Swanson inquired about putting another ad in the Paintrag for the upcoming holiday bazaar on November 15th. Only 27 artists applied with 10 of them being jewelers. The board decided that the jewelry category is now closed. Steve Lutzger volunteered to call artists for the bazaar. A discussion was held about the silent auction at the bazaar.

Monthly Show Chair - Lynn Ely led a discussion about the upcoming "Small Images" show on November 18th from 3:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. The board agreed with Lynn that there needs to be an incentive for entering artists.

Jobs Chair - Rita Hohweiler-Cecil led a discussion on monthly show jobs. The board members agreed that there needs to be a consequence for a member not fulfilling monthly show job. No decisions were made, but will continue discussion next month. Also discussed if a monthly show member, who is also is a wall/floor renter, should be responsible for an additional job.

Hospitality Chair-Devora Safran discussed that the 1st Thursday receptions at the gallery need a budget for food/drink costs. Also, she suggested a banner for the artist receptions. The next reception is a holiday event on December 7th from 3:30 to 6:00

New Business-Carol Korfin decided that because the meeting went overtime, the new business will be discussed at the next board meeting. However, she brought up that she received an email from Bob Coletti, VP Del Mar Art Center. He wants SAG (Sargent Art Group) to partner with SDAG. Also, the Oceanside gallery wants a joint show with SDAG. Carol discussed using Amazon Local to offer evening painting and wine classes in Encinitas area restaurants as a way to raise awareness to community.

Motion: Karen Fidel motioned for meeting adjournment. Grace seconded to adjourn the SDAG Board Meeting at 1:17 p.m. Motion passed: in favor 13; Against 0, Abstain 0.

Next meeting: October 27th at 10:00 a.m. at Encinitas Public Works Building.

Artist to offer demonstration on 'inner creative wellspring' at library

The Encinitas Library offers "Painting From Your Inner Creative Wellspring," a demonstration by artist Richard Hawk, from 2-4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 12.

Richard Hawk is an internationally collected artist living and working in Encinitas. A figurative painter on canvas and paper, he also works in oil on copper using special oxidation techniques.

Hawk's expressive works deal with the inner life of his subjects in a process he calls "mystical realism." His paintings have been awarded in numerous national and international exhibitions and been featured in The Artist's Magazine.

Strong design, intensity of expression and vigorous paint handling create the energy and excitement for which his work is known. His work is represented by several galleries nationally.

He also teaches workshops for other artists in the area of intuitive painting. He will demonstrate an intuitive painting approach using water media, which all artists can apply in their work. Visit www.hawkstudio.com and www.copperhand.com.

This event is sponsored by the San Dieguito Art Guild, a 501(c)3 nonprofit that manages the Off Track Gallery at 937 S. Coast Highway 101, Encinitas. The demonstration is funded in part by the city of Encinitas and the Mizel Foundation.

Advance registration is required. Reserve to Julie Bubar, SDAGprograms@gmail.com.

SDAG Meeting Minutes

160 Calle Magdalena, Encinitas, CA 92024

The meeting was held on October 27, 2014 at 10:00 a.m.

Officers Present: Carol Korfin, Karen Fidel, Susan Schulte, Linda Melemed, Linda Melvin, Terry Oshrin, Pamela Taylor Waldman, Lynn Ely, Cindy Alcoset, Sharon Hoffman, Julie Bubar, Grace Swanson, Lin Holzinger, and Devora Safran.

Officers Absent: Dolores Renner, Aleksandra Owczarek, Rita Hohweiler, and Jill Treadwell Svendsen

The meeting was called to order by Carol Korfin at 10:00am.

Regarding the minutes of the last meeting, Pam Waldman had a correction: Cards (not card racks) will be rotated on a regular basis.

Motion: Lynn made a motion to accept the minutes as corrected. Grace seconded. Unanimously approved.

Treasurers Report - Linda Melemed

The September 2014 Financial Statements were distributed by email to the board prior to the meeting. The net profit for the month was $9,310. There were no questions or comments, and the Financial Statements were approved by all.

The Tax Return for the Financial Year End August 2014 has been filed and the new CPA firm AKT, LLC saved the Guild over $300.

The bank accounts at USBank are all set up and ready to be used starting in December. The credit card machine linking us to the new account was installed and will be saving us $50 per month on merchant fees.

Motion: Karen Fidel motioned and Linda Melvin seconded to approve the financial report and use of Elavon credit card processing, saving the gallery $500/year for this service. The motion was approved by the board.

Motion: Karen Fidel motioned for purchase of the Apple Pay machine for $230/year. It was seconded by Pam Waldman and approved by all present.

Chair Reports

Grace Swanson, PR Chair: Grace talked about the upcoming Silent Auction at the Holiday Bazaar on November 15. She reminded gallery vendors and members to bring in donated items before November 7th. Also, for all members postcards for advertising the bazaar ready at the gallery and for members to give out to local businesses. Also, Facebook ads had been placed.

Pam Waldman, Calendar Chair: Pam reported that she has the new calendar ready for February/March. For members that have limited scope of time for job assignments, they will have a chance to sign up for jobs first before members who have a more flexible time frame.

Pam also requested $5,000 for the new website that Kathleen Magee is designing for the gallery.

Motion: The request for $2,500 start-up monies for new website was motioned by Grace Swanson and Lin Holzinger seconded. The motion was approved.

Linda Melvin, Gallery Manager and Committee Chair: Linda presented the minutes of the committee meeting from October 24th.

The next jury session is on November 14th at Linda's home. Linda is training Caroline Van Leeuwen to take over running the jurying and having future sessions at Carolina's home. Cheryl Ehlers will be contacted for insurance purposes.

An item of putting book cases in a space in the gallery was discussed. The committee felt that this would not work out at this time. A suggestion of having a book/bead exchange at a special meeting, where all members could attend, might be possible in the next couple of months.

The issue of the jewelry tags needing more information on metals used was discussed. The metal used in a piece of jewelry needs to be clearly written on the tag and/or on a small sign in the vendor's space. The floor chairs will have to address this problem in upcoming months.

The card rack installation will be on November 6th and 7th and Barb Mille will monitor the people using the racks. The committee will be in charge of the space rotation.

The Photography medium that has been enhanced with paint or embedded photography in a medium will now be called Photographic Mixed Media.

Karen Fidel suggested a welcoming committee be formed for contacting new members to invite them to the annual meeting in January and to suggest that they help with the monthly show people. Rita Hohweiler-Cecil, the Jobs Coordinator, should be contacted to seek out people for this committee.

Julie Bubar, Programs Chair: Julie discussed the upcoming demos at the Encinitas Branch Library that are free and open to the public on several Sundays of the month from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm.

The Richard Hawk demo was discussed including the issue of attendance. 95 people RSVP'd the demo on October 12th, but only 60 attended the event. Julie said that emails were sent out in advance for RSVP's, but that the RSVP'ers were not notified again. People should be notified again closer to the date of the event. Carol suggested that a list of RSVP'ers be added to constant contact list for future events. Grace Swanson offered to add them.

Old Business

Carol said that the lease of the gallery still needs to be signed by the landlord and sent back to her.

The new 2015 calendars are done and in the gallery for sale at $15 each. Grace said to write in the description space of sales log as "2015 SDAG Calendar".

Pam Waldman reported about the gallery lighting and said that she needed credit approval for the light bulbs that are $100. There was no motion needed.

Laura Lowenstein was absent to give a report about community events, so Carol gave a synopsis of the Woody Car Show and upcoming Encinitas Street Fair on November 23rd.

Linda Melvin talked about the Soravia paintings that are ready to hang and sell, but asked the board for some wall space in the gallery. There are about 10 that are ready for hanging. Lin Holzinger wants to frame and mat some of the paintings to sell at approximately $80 each.

Motion: Lin Holzinger motioned that one half wall space be available and a hanger rack for the paintings be put in the gallery. $500 will be allocated in the budget for the framing of the paintings. Linda Melvin 2nd the motion. Motion passed: In Favor: 12; Against: 0; Abstain:1.

New Business

Julie Bubar, the committee chair for the annual membership meeting, suggested that the upcoming meeting in January be at Great News, a cooking store and school in Pacific Beach. Devora Safran and her husband own this store. Many of the board members felt that this was not a good idea, since this location is too far away from Encinitas. The board decided that the meeting will be held at a location close by The Offtrack Gallery. Julie stepped down as chair of the committee, Carol accepted her resignation, and a new committee is forming for the event.

Carol introduced a joint upcoming group exhibition that the Sargeant Art Group, the Oceanside Museum of Art, and the San Dieguito Art Guild will host during the summer track season at Del Mar called "Trifecta". The details as to the type of art to be included has not been finalized, but there will be an art reception where a 10% discount to members for signups for all memberships. An informal vote was taken to pursue this event further.

Linda Melvin reported about a traveling exhibit at Southfair in Del Mar that the Oceanside Museum of Art is hosting.

Carol talked about the Sip and Splatter Nights event that needs a new name and a small committee to form. Devora suggested Vino and Van Gogh. Carol needs a co-chair and wants to advertise this event in Amazon local once plans have been made as to the first location and details of the event.

A committee is forming for the Mother's Day event to start seeking homes for the artists to sell their art work. An email has been sent out for requesting artists to be on this committee.

Lin Holzinger suggested that an artist retreat take place in 2015, a weekend event offered to all the members in SDAG. She requested a few volunteers to seek out a site, possibly Julian Retreat Center. Grace Swanson, Linda Melvin, Carol Korfin, and Pam Waldman volunteered to go with Lin to check out sites.

Future 2015 board meetings will be held at USBank on the 4th Mondays of the month at 10:00 a.m. except on May 18th, November 16th, and December 21st.

Motion: Linda Melvin motioned for the meeting adjournment. Lin Holzinger seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned at 11:55 a.m. Motion passed: In favor: 13. Against: 0, Abstain: 0.

Next meeting: November 17, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. at the Encinitas Public Works Building.

Membership Renewal Reminder

Thank you to those who have remembered to renew their SDAG membership. We still have members who have not paid and your membership is now past due. Payments were due August 31. (If you joined the Guild in June, July or August 2014, your membership is paid up to August 31, 2015, so you can disregard this notice.) There is no increase in dues this year - $85 for adults, $95 for family in SAME household.

Please send in your payment to ensure that you continue to receive all the benefits of the Guild, including emails, Paint Rags, etc. Please print the membership renewal form from website and mail to:

SDAG, c/o Karen Fidel, 16162 Avenida Venusto #4, San Diego, CA 92128.

Message from SDAG President

HOPE you are having a good Fall! Yes, Fall is here, although we would never have known it by the temperatures in September. It should cool down outside in October, but it will be HOT all year long in 2015 at S.D.A.G. That's because it is the 50th Anniversary Year of the Guild.

Your Board is planning BIG things, and we want you to be a BIG part of it. Please contact me and let me know that you want to help. We will find just the right event for you to be a part of. Email me at ckorfin@gmail.com

The Holiday Bazaar is fast approaching. If you haven't reserved a space, do it now! Go to the home page of our website and you can click and get the application. Let's make this the best Holiday Bazaar ever. And let's have fun together.

If you have any ideas for new events or changes we can make to existing events, please share them with me. I am anxiously awaiting your emails!

I am looking for 2 people to help 1) get sponsorships for the guild and 2) to investigate selling the Soravia art pieces. Also looking for people to be on the 50th Anniversary team to help plan and run special events in our special year.

Contact me for further details on any of these positions.

Remember, my theme this year is HOPE.....

Help accomplish our goals

Open ourselves to new ideas

Positive attitude at all times

Engage more of the membership

Try It, You'll Like It

Hands-on workshops by members of the San Dieguito Art Guild

Date: Monday, October 6, 2014

Time: Check In: 9:00 - 9:15am (coffee & goodies)

Workshop: 9:30am to 12:30pm

Location: Ecke Building at San Diego Botanic Garden 230 Quail Gardens Drive, Encinitas

Cost: $25

To secure your space in the workshop:

1. Email Grace Swanson with your selection. swanson121@cox.net
2. Make check out to SDAG and mail to Grace Swanson, 1565 Gascony Road, Encinitas, CA 92024. After your class confirmation, checks must be received within 4 mail days to secure your selection.

~~~~~ What to expect

- Instructor will have examples of finished pieces in their medium and give a short demo.
- All materials will be provided.
- For most sessions, you will work on a simple "Make it and take it" project that you can take home.
- List of stores and websites where you can purchase additional supplies and how much you can expect to spend will be available.

- List of where you can get additional training or lessons in the medium you choose will be available.

Classes Offered (choose one):

Oil Painting (FULL)

Chinese Brush Painting (FULL)

Scroll down for descriptions of classes.

Space in each class is limited to 10 students. Some classes fill very quickly.

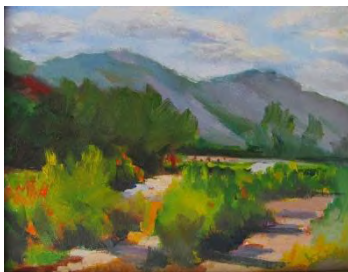

If you want to be in a class with a friend, please say so in your email and, if there is still room, we will put you together.

Teacher: Joan Grine

You will learn about pastels in general, the different kinds of soft pastel sticks, pastel pencils and the papers used in painting with pastels. Also I will demonstrate the techniques in applying pastels. I will have still life objects set up and will have landscape photos available for inspiration. You will be supplied materials to use there as well as some to take home with you to get familiar with the medium. Bring an apron, for pastels can be messy.

Teacher: Judy Salinsky

The importance of developing a series of thumbnail sketches prior to starting your painting cannot be overstated. Once one thumbnail stands out due to its strong composition; only then you are ready to paint. These sketches allow you to capture your subject's light, shadows, and atmosphere. As a class participant, you will be introduced to the basic principles of composition, creating your own series of thumbnail sketches.

Chinese Brush Painting (FULL)

Teacher: Lisa Curry

Enjoy a brief experience of Chinese Brush Painting using proper technique with brush, ink and rice paper. You will learn to paint bamboo and leave with a finished painting on rice paper.

Oil Painting (FULL)

Teacher: Marileigh Schulte

Marileigh will do a quick demo, followed by an introduction into figure painting using a photograph as reference. Students will learn how to use a limited palette to create a beautiful piece of art .

FIGURATIVE PAINTER

Demo: Painting From Your Inner Creative Well-spring - Presentation/ Painting Demonstration

About the Artist: An internationally collected artist living and working in Encinitas. A figurative painter on canvas and paper, he also works uniquely in oil on copper using special oxidation techniques. Hawk's expressive works deal with the inner life of his subjects in a process he calls "mystical realism".

His paintings have been awarded in numerous national and international exhibitions and been featured in The Artist's Magazine. Strong design, intensity of expression and vigorous paint handling create the energy and excitement for which his work is known.

Watercolor Classes

with Linda Melvin

Classes are 4 sessions of 3 hours per session and are held at Linda's home in the Solana Beach area.

Contact Kate O'Brien

at zelda1970@cox.net to reserve your space and pay for classes

Beginning Watercolor

Wednesdays, Oct. 15, 22, 29, Nov. 5

1 pm - 4 pm

Classes will cover the basics of watercolor (wet on wet, wet on dry, dry brushing, graduated washes) paints, paper selection, and brushes - everything you need to know to create beautiful paintings. Fee is $100 plus $14.50 materials fee for 300# Arches watercolor paper to be paid to the teacher at the first session. If you have watercolor supplies, please bring them.

FLUID Watercolor

Thursdays, Oct. 16, 23, 30, Nov. 6

10 am - 1 pm

Talk about FUN! Previous students have had a blast with using this newer form of water media. Create a painting by laying down an inspiring background and then enhancing it with gauze, saran wrap, wax paper, salt and bleach.

Fee is $100 plus $25 materials fee for 300# Arches watercolor paper to be paid to the teacher at the first session. If you have watercolor supplies, please bring them

Intermediate Watercolor

Thursdays, Oct. 16, 23, 30, Nov. 6

2 pm -- 5 pm

Kick your watercolor technique up a notch and improve the quality of your paintings with the expert help of this talented painter/teacher.

Fee is $100 plus $14.50 materials fee for 300# Arches watercolor paper to be paid to the teacher at the first session. If you have watercolor supplies, please bring them.

Chinese Brush Painting

with Lisa Curry

Have fun learning Chinese brushstroke. You will have the opportunity to learn that Chinese painting is like a martial art-the importance of posture, how to wield the brush, and the state of mind necessary to complete a painting with 'chi' or energy!

Fridays, January 9, 16, 23, 30

from 9:30 to 12:30

Encinitas Community Center off of Balour

Classes are 4 sessions of 3 hours per session

Fee is $100 (plus $10 materials fee payable to teacher first day of class)

Contact Kate O'Brien at zelda1970@cox.net to reserve your space and pay for classes

"Fun with Glass"

with Kate O'Brien

In this four (4) part class participants will be introduced to the art of glass fusing and slumping. Students will complete three (3) projects of their choosing using System 96 glass. The instructor will discuss the fundamentals of fusing and glass kiln firing schedules. Written instructions will be provided to each participant and all tools needed will be provided during class time.

A $30 materials fee which includes kiln firings will be paid to the instructor at the first class. The materials fee is $30 paid by the student and $10 paid by the Guild for a total of $40. Cost is higher because fusible glass is most costly and there will be multiple firings.

Saturdays, Jan 17, 24, 31, and Feb. 7, 2015

10am -1 pm

Encinitas Community Center, Arts and Crafts Room
1140 Oakcrest Park Drive, Encinitas.
(cross-streets Encinitas Blvd. & Balour Drive). Plenty of parking.

Classes are 4 sessions of 3 hours per session

Cost of all four classes:
$100 plus materials fee.

Email Kate at zelda1970@cox.net to register for these classes.

Mail check for $100 made out to SDAG to:

Kate O'Brien
835 Hampton Court
Vista, CA 92081

$100 class fee must be received within 4 mail days after registration to hold spot in class.
Materials fee to be paid to the instructor at start of class.

Dia de los Muertos - Day of the Dead Celebration

Saturday, November 1, 2014 from 12 - 4 p.m.

Join in for the first annual Encinitas Dia de los Muertos Celebration which will take place on Saturday, November 1, 2014 from 12-4:00 pm, in the Encinitas Library Community Room. This will be a family-friendly event including performances by Ballet Folklorico Tapatico, Rafael Renteria and Danza Azteca dancers. As well as hands on workshops to make traditional crafts and decorations such as decorating sugar skulls, making Papel Picado (tissue paper cuts), Cempasuchiles (Tissue paper flowers), skull face painting and making a Catrina (elegant skeleton lady.)

A community Ofrenda (or remembrance shrine) featuring a replica of the surfing Madonna will be on display in the main library. Participants are invited to bring a copy of a photo or a small non-valuable token of remembrance of their loved one to be included on the Ofrenda.

The San Dieguito Art Guild has contributed funds to help with the hands-on workshops. This will be a fun event for our guild members to assist with the children/family art activities.

If you would like to help with one of the workshops, please contact Laura Lowenstein at 760-753-3254 or by email atlloenstein@outlook.com

The shifts will be 2.5 hours, from either 11:30am-2:00 pm or 1:30-4:00pm. You'll receive instructions at the start of your shift.

Fallbrook Art Association News and Call for Artists for Juried Show judged by Richard Hawk

The Fallbrook Art Association, which meets on the 2nd Thursday of the month, September through June, has announced its guest artists for its October and November meetings.

Each artist will provide a demonstration of their technique at the meeting and will hold a workshop the following Sunday at the same location. The general meetings and workshops are held at the Fallbrook School of the Arts and are open to the public. At 5:30 pm, FAA members are welcome to bring in one or two "paintings in progress" for a session with the demonstrator who will give suggestions for possible improvements. Refreshments will be served at 6:15 pm, before a brief general meeting and the demonstration, which starts at 6:30 pm and ends at 8:00 pm.

The guest artist for the October 9 meeting is Michael Jacques, printmaker, sculptor, fine art painter, teacher, and Admissions Advisor at the Laguna College of Art & Design(LCAD) in Laguna Beach, California. As a painter, Michael combines oils and acrylics on panels and canvas. His style is that of turn of the century plein aire painters that captured their themes on location.

The guest artist for the November 13 meeting is Darlene Katz. She paints landscapes, figures and portraits, as well as animals and still life. She enjoys being technically proficient without losing the freshness of her painting, no matter what the subject.

For more information about the FAA and its activities, visit the web site Fallbrook Art Association .

Fallbrook Art Association's Open Judged Show will be held at the Fallbrook Art Center, 103 S. Main Avenue, October 31 through November 16, 2014. FAA membership is not required to participate.

A maximum of 2 pieces, in any of seven different categories, can be entered. All works will be accepted Monday, October 27, from 10 am until 3 pm, providing they meet FAA submission standards and guidelines. Cash prizes will be awarded in each category and presented at the Opening Reception and Awards Ceremony Saturday, November 1, from 6 to 8 pm.

Detailed information can be found on the Call for Entries page of FAA's October newsletter which can be reached at website above.

Rules for Monthly Show

INFORMATION ABOUT THE MONTHLY SHOW

1. If your work is on a wrapped canvas, make sure that the edges are painted also.
2. All wall art must have D or triangle brackets and wire, NOT SAWTOOTH HANGERS or SCREW EYES
3. The brackets need to be placed on each side about one quarter of the way down the side.
4. The wire should be tight enough so that when the art is hung, the picture hanger will not be visible.
5. The edges of the wire need to be taped to protect against injury.

Wall artwork for the Monthly Show is divided into three entry fee categories:

- 1) under 17" measured on the diagonal: $12
- 2) between 17" and 36" measured on the diagonal: $17
- 3) over 36" measured on the diagonal: $22

Contact Lynn Ely at artsbylynn@gmail.com for more details on these categories and also about exhibiting 3-dimensional artwork. All Monthly Show entries must remain on display for the entire month unless sold. They may then be replaced with a similar size and type of artwork. Please visit the Off Track website at this link to review the rules for submitting artwork in the monthly shows at the gallery:

October Monthly Show Judge - Paul Strahm

Since 1997, I have been working full time as a Professional Fine Artist. Taking my easel and paints to the outdoors has created countless challenges along with numerous rewards. My objective has always been to interpret a scene - whether landscape or some cultural activity - through traditional approaches of painting while exploring my individual brand of "story telling." My career is now taking me around the world allowing me to share my paintings with more and more people. It is a fascinating journey, challenging and rewarding.

Born: Columbus, Ohio

Residence: San Diego, California

Education: BFA Youngstown State University, Ohio

November Monthly Show Judge - Mike Gulewich

A native Californian, Michael Gulewich has been a professional artist for over 25 years. During that time his award-winning work has appeared in numerous shows and galleries throughout the western and northwestern United States and is included in both private and corporate collections in the United States and Canada.

His painting is derived from the turn of the century "plein air" painters which actually means going out in nature and painting on location. He is passionate about a wide variety of themes from the coastal regions to the desert, rural scenes or whatever calls to him at the moment.

Support SDAG

when you shop online at smile.amazon.com !!!

About AmazonSmile

What is AmazonSmile?

AmazonSmile is a simple and automatic way for you to support [SDAG] every time you shop, at no cost to you. When you shop at smile.amazon.com, you'll find the exact same low prices, vast selection and convenient shopping experience as Amazon.com, with the added bonus that Amazon will donate a portion of the purchase price to [SDAG].

How do I shop at AmazonSmile?

To shop at AmazonSmile simply go to smile.amazon.com from the web browser on your computer or mobile device. You may also want to add a bookmark to AmazonSmile to make it even easier to return and start your shopping at AmazonSmile.

Which products on AmazonSmile are eligible for charitable donations?

Tens of millions of products on AmazonSmile are eligible for donations. You will see eligible products marked "Eligible for AmazonSmile donation" on their product detail pages. Recurring Subscribe-and-Save purchases and subscription renewals are not currently eligible.

Can I use my existing Amazon.com account on AmazonSmile?

Yes, you use the same account on Amazon.com and AmazonSmile. Your shopping cart, Wish List, wedding or baby registry, and other account settings are also the same.

How do I select a charitable organization to support when shopping on AmazonSmile?

On your first visit to AmazonSmile, you need to select a charitable organization [SDAG] to receive donations from eligible purchases before you begin shopping. We will remember your selection, and then every eligible purchase you make on AmazonSmile will result in a donation.

How much of my purchase does Amazon donate?

The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases. The purchase price is the amount paid for the item minus any rebates and excluding shipping & handling, gift-wrapping fees, taxes, or service charges.

Artist to offer demonstration on 'inner creative wellspring' at library

The Encinitas Library offers "Painting From Your Inner Creative Wellspring," a demonstration by artist Richard Hawk, from 2-4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 12.

Richard Hawk is an internationally collected artist living and working in Encinitas. A figurative painter on canvas and paper, he also works in oil on copper using special oxidation techniques.

Hawk's expressive works deal with the inner life of his subjects in a process he calls "mystical realism." His paintings have been awarded in numerous national and international exhibitions and been featured in The Artist's Magazine.

Richard Hawk

Strong design, intensity of expression and vigorous paint handling create the energy and excitement for which his work is known. His work is represented by several galleries nationally.

He also teaches workshops for other artists in the area of intuitive painting.

He will demonstrate an intuitive painting approach using water media, which all artists can apply in their work. Visit www.hawkstudio.com and www.copperhand.com.

This event is sponsored by the San Dieguito Art Guild, a 501(c)3 nonprofit that manages the Off Track Gallery at 937 S. Coast Highway 101, Encinitas. The demonstration is funded in part by the city of Encinitas and the Mizel Foundation.

Advance registration is required. Reserve to Julie Bubar, SDAGprograms@gmail.com.

Message from SDAG President

Thanksgiving is almost here and Christmas and Chanukah are not far behind. But, before any of those holidays arrive, we have the Holiday Bazaar on November 15th. Over 30 artists will take part and we have been spreading the word, through advertising, pr and word of mouth. Tell all your friends to start their holiday shopping with a one of a kind handmade item by a local artist. And you, as a member, can shop there too. This year we are adding a silent auction to help generate funds for SDAG. We will also be collecting non-perishable food items for those in need. Everyone who donates an item gets a raffle ticket. We will draw one lucky winner and that person will get a gift certificate to the gallery.

The 50th Anniversary Calendar has arrived and is on sale at the gallery. Makes a great holiday gift! As Thanksgiving approaches, I want to say that I am thankful for each and every one of you who does a job for SDAG/Off Track Gallery. Together we can accomplish great things!

SDAG Calendar for 2015
Commemorating the Guild's 50th Anniversary!

San Dieguito Art Guild's 2015 Calendar Now for Sale

Fourteen artists from the San Dieguito Art Guild have their original artwork published in a glossy, high-quality calendar for the 2015 year. Each artist selected a month that had significance for them. For some it was their birthday month. For others, it was to honor a friend or family member. The calendar commemorates the guild's 50th anniversary as a non-profit organization dedicated to furthering artistic understanding and fostering artistic growth of members and the community at large by promoting interest, education, knowledge and skills in the visual arts.

On the cover is a stunning oil painting of plumeria flowers by Jennifer Richards, whose experience with painting began when she moved to Encinitas and was inspired to create unique mementos of the beautiful local scenery for her own home. Carol and Harvey Korfin share the month of January with friend and fellow artist, Karen Fidel. Carol displays one of her fused glass animals while Harvey shows his very popular clocks made from recycled computer boards. Karen is a very successful ceramic artist. February showcases the algorithmic art of Cyé Waldman. Linda Melemed chose March for her watercolor of Huntington Gardens koi and Sharon Hoffman's entry for April honors her sister, Pat, in a painting titled, "Pat's Bouquet". Vilma Malmberg, the only surviving artist of the 12 founding members of the guild (which was formed in 1965), chose the month of May. She chose to show her watercolor, "Seaquarium". Grace Swanson, gourd artist, chose the month of June to honor her mother, Lisa Curry features her watercolor, "Morning Mist" to showcase July. Adam Koltz shows his plein air watercolor "Star of India - Port Running Lights" for the month of August while Sandy Heath's hammered copper pieces grace the month of September. You will find Linda Melvin's very colorful watercolor, "Flight" in the month of October, Judy Salinsky's oil painting "Sunshine Swamis" in the month of November, and Donna Butnik's painting "Holiday Visit with Muggins" in the month of December.

Stop by the Off Track Gallery, 937 South Coast Highway 101, Suite C-103, downtown Encinitas, to purchase a calendar for yourself or to give as a gift. $15 per calendar. Supplies are limited.

2014 Volunteer of the Year Award

The Encinitas 101 MainStreet Association hosted their Annual Meeting and Installation Dinner on October 7, 2014.

Among the nominees was Cheryl Ehlers for the 2014 Volunteer of the Year Award. Presenter, Dody Crawford, Executive Director of the Encinitas 101 MainStreet Association provided a telling description of Cheryl's contributions in the local communities and business members, along with the involvement of the many activities and advocacy she shares with youth. Presently the curator of the E101 Gallery, and the City of Encinitas 46 visual art exhibitions, she provides opportunities for emerging and professional artists about town. Karina Bania Workshop Participants

Below are participants in the Karina Bania Mixed Media Painter Workshop, on September 21, 2014, at the Encinitas Branch Library.

Karina Bania introduced her vision of mixed media to create depth in paintings to a very eager selective group of artists! Karina encouraged the use of mod podge matt, acrylic paint, pencils, scissors, magazine photos, and a multitude of papers to be included in the final work of art.

Thank you Karina Bania, the City of Encinitas, the Mizel Family Foundation, and the Encinitas Branch Library.

Classes are 4 sessions of 3 hours per session and are held at Linda's home in the Solana Beach area.

Contact Kate O'Brien at zelda1970@cox.net to reserve your space and pay for classes

Beginning Watercolor

Wednesdays

Jan 21, 28, Feb 4, 11

1 pm - 4 pm

Classes will cover the basics of watercolor (wet on wet, wet on dry, dry brushing, graduated washes) paints, paper selection, and brushes - everything you need to know to create beautiful paintings. Fee is $100 plus $14.50 materials fee for 300# Arches watercolor paper to be paid to the teacher at the first session. If you have watercolor supplies, please bring them.

FLUID Watercolor

Thursdays

Jan 22, 29, Feb 5, 12

10 am - 1 pm

Talk about FUN! Previous students have had a blast with using this newer form of water media. Create a painting by laying down an inspiring background and then enhancing it with gauze, saran wrap, wax paper, salt and bleach. Fee is $100 plus $25 materials fee for 300# Arches watercolor paper to be paid to the teacher at the first session. If you have watercolor supplies, please bring them

Intermediate Watercolor

Thursdays

Jan 22, 29, Feb 5, 12

2 pm - 5 pm

Kick your watercolor technique up a notch and improve the quality of your paintings with the expert help of this talented painter/teacher. Fee is $100 plus $14.50 materials fee for 300# Arches watercolor paper to be paid to the teacher at the first session. If you have watercolor supplies, please bring them.

Chinese Brush Painting

with Lisa Curry

Have fun learning Chinese brushstroke. You will have the opportunity to learn that Chinese painting is like a martial art-the importance of posture, how to wield the brush, and the state of mind necessary to complete a painting with 'chi' or energy!

Fridays, January 9, 16, 23, 30
from 9:30 to 12:30

Encinitas Community Center off of Balour

Classes are 4 sessions of 3 hours per session

Fee is $100 (plus $10 materials fee payable to teacher first day of class)

Contact Kate O'Brien at zelda1970@cox.net to reserve your space and pay for classes

"Fun with Glass"

with Kate O'Brien

In this four (4) part class participants will be introduced to the art of glass fusing and slumping. Students will complete three (3) projects of their choosing using System 96 glass. The instructor will discuss the fundamentals of fusing and glass kiln firing schedules. Written instructions will be provided to each participant and all tools needed will be provided during class time.

A $30 materials fee which includes kiln firings will be paid to the instructor at the first class. The materials fee is $30 paid by the student and $10 paid by the Guild for a total of $40. Cost is higher because fusible glass is most costly and there will be multiple firings.

Saturdays, Jan 17, 24, 31, and Feb. 7, 2015
10am -1 pm

Encinitas Community Center, Arts and Crafts Room
1140 Oakcrest Park Drive, Encinitas.

(cross-streets Encinitas Blvd. & Balour Drive). Plenty of parking.

Classes are 4 sessions of 3 hours per session

Cost of all four classes:
$100 plus materials fee.

Email Kate at zelda1970@cox.net to register for these classes.

Mail check for $100 made out to SDAG to:

Kate O'Brien

835 Hampton Court

Vista, CA 92081

$100 class fee must be received within 4 mail days after registration to hold spot in class.

Materials fee to be paid to the instructor at start of class.

Get the wow power in your watercolor paintings!

By Learning Design and Composition.
with Jayne Spencer

This is a great class to take for painters in all levels. Design and composition is the key of all successful paintings. You will learn how to keep the interest of the viewer and learn placement of elements, such as value, lines, colors, and shapes within the format. You will learn the most common uses of division of space. And about thumbnails and color studies. This class is fun and enlightening for all levels.

Mondays, February 2,9,16,23
3:00 - 6:00 pm

Acrylic Painting

with Barbara Roth

Thursdays, Jan. 8, 15, 22 and 29, 2015
from 12noon-3pm

You can paint with acrylic paint on all kinds of surfaces and get tons of different effects. Acrylic painting is water based, easy to clean up and simple to learn. You will complete one 8" x 10" painting in each meeting of this 4 session workshop.

In the first session you will learn how to complete a simple still life using a limited palette of paint. In the 2nd session you will complete a simple landscape painting. In the 3rd session you will complete a painting of plants or flowers or vegetables from a photograph. In the last session you will learn how to paint buildings and architectural elements.

Some of the techniques you will see demonstrated and learn include: avoiding muddy colors when you are using mixing many colors of paint, mixing colors, creating depth, designing a captivating composition, glazing and adding texture, using mediums, painting with variety of brushes strokes, and how to use the color wheel. You will leave class with enough skill and confidence to continue painting in acrylic on your own.

You may bring your own supplies or buy them from the teacher for a $15 supply fee.

Skip Lawrence was the juror and he selected 95 paintings from among the 620 images submitted. The San Diego Watercolor Society International Exhibition is one of the best art shows in San Diego. This show features 95 amazing watercolor paintings from all over the world that include works from Mexico, Spain, Malaysia, India, Turkey, Russia, Singapore and Canada.

Jayne Spencer:

My painting, Maasai Boy, was chosen to receive the Logan Graphic Product Award and Golden Artist Color Merchandise Award. I teach and paint out of my home studio and MiraCosta College.

Pics from the Richard Hawk demo

RICHARD HAWK - Figurative Painter, October 12th at 2:00-4:00pm, at the Encinitas Library created this strong expressive inner life being Art work. An audience of 60 guests tightly surrounding Hawk's artistic paint strokes in action. Rita Hohweiler-Cecil was the recipient of Richard Hawk's demo painting provided by the San Dieguito Art Guild raffle.

Thanks again to Cheryl Ehlers and Julie Bubar for all your efforts - you put so much of yourselves into what you do! I really admire that, and am grateful to be on the receiving end this time... I feel it was a stellar event and I really appreciate you and all who contributed. Please pass on my thanks.

Cheers,
Richard

Rules for Monthly Show

INFORMATION ABOUT THE MONTHLY SHOW

BEFORE YOU BRING YOUR ENTRIES TO THE MONTHLY SHOW, PLEASE. . . .

1. If your work is on a wrapped canvas, make sure that the edges are painted also.
2. All wall art must have D or triangle brackets and wire, NOT SAWTOOTH HANGERS or SCREW EYES
3. The brackets need to be placed on each side about one quarter of the way down the side.
4. The wire should be tight enough so that when the art is hung, the picture hanger will not be visible.
5. The edges of the wire need to be taped to protect against injury.

Wall artwork for the Monthly Show is divided into three entry fee categories:

- 1) under 17" measured on the diagonal: $12
- 2) between 17" and 36" measured on the diagonal: $17
- 3) over 36" measured on the diagonal: $22

Contact Lynn Ely at artsbylynn@gmail.com for more details on these categories and also about exhibiting 3-dimensional artwork.

All Monthly Show entries must remain on display for the entire month unless sold. They may then be replaced with a similar size and type of artwork.

Please visit the Off Track website at this link to review the rules for submitting artwork in the monthly shows at the gallery:

<http://offtrackgallery.com/membership.php> click on WALL HANGING INSTRUCTIONS.

November Monthly Show Judge - Mike Gulewich

A native Californian, Michael Gulewich has been a professional artist for over 25 years. During that time his award-winning work has appeared in numerous shows and galleries throughout the western and northwestern United States and is included in both private and corporate collections in the United States and Canada. His painting is derived from the turn of the century "plein air" painters which actually means going out in nature and painting on location. He is passionate about a wide variety of themes from the coastal regions to the desert, rural scenes or whatever calls to him at the moment.

December Monthly Show Judge - Chuck McPherson
Small Images and More Show!

In his seventh year as a watercolorist, Chuck's efforts have garnered hundreds of awards for his artwork and double Signature status with The San Diego Watercolor Society and National Watercolor Society.

He served two years as the Member Shows Director on the SDWS Board, and as Third VP on the NWS Board, plus a concurrent three-year stint as Newsletter Chair on the Board of Directors for the San Diego Museum of Art Artists Guild.

Chuck paints full-time and builds his reputation through a quick wit and his 6" brush, flamboyantly embellishing paintings with props borrowed from large and intimate crowds... like lipstick & coffee. He co-founded BallastPointGallery.com and serves as a discerning art show juror and critique specialist.

About AmazonSmile

What is AmazonSmile?

AmazonSmile is a simple and automatic way for you to support [SDAG] every time you shop, at no cost to you. When you shop at smile.amazon.com, you'll find the exact same low prices, vast selection and convenient shopping experience as Amazon.com, with the added bonus that Amazon will donate a portion of the purchase price to [SDAG].

How do I shop at AmazonSmile?

To shop at AmazonSmile simply go to smile.amazon.com from the web browser on your computer or mobile device. You may also want to add a bookmark to AmazonSmile to make it even easier to return and start your shopping at AmazonSmile.

Which products on AmazonSmile are eligible for charitable donations?

Tens of millions of products on AmazonSmile are eligible for donations. You will see eligible products marked "Eligible for AmazonSmile donation" on their product detail pages.

Recurring Subscribe-and-Save purchases and subscription renewals are not currently eligible.

Can I use my existing Amazon.com account on AmazonSmile?

Yes, you use the same account on Amazon.com and AmazonSmile. Your shopping cart, Wish List, wedding or baby registry, and other account settings are also the same.

How do I select a charitable organization to support when shopping on AmazonSmile?

On your first visit to AmazonSmile, you need to select a charitable organization [SDAG] to receive donations from eligible purchases before you begin shopping. We will remember your selection, and then every eligible purchase you make on AmazonSmile will result in a donation.

How much of my purchase does Amazon donate?

The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases. The purchase price is the amount paid for the item minus any rebates and excluding shipping & handling, gift-wrapping fees, taxes, or service charges.

Encinitas artists host Holiday Bazaar Nov. 15

Artists of the San Dieguito Art Guild present their fourth annual Holiday Bazaar from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 15 at the Encinitas Community Center, 1140 Oakcrest Park Drive, Encinitas (corner of Balboa and Encinitas Boulevard, just west of El Camino Real).

The San Dieguito Art Guild, an all-volunteer 501(c)(3) nonprofit with more than 200 members, operates the Off Track Gallery in the Lumberyard Shopping Center in Encinitas and offers art workshops, classes and demonstrations by outstanding professional artists.

Gourd artist Grace Swanson, one of the event organizers, says, "This event gives local artists a venue to offer their hand-crafted artworks to the public and gives the shoppers a chance to purchase one-of-a-kind treasures. There are no imported items at this Bazaar. The buyer is purchasing work directly from a local artist and can meet them face to face."

Guild President and fused glass artist Carol Korfin says, "Even if you have been to our Holiday Bazaar in the past, there are new artists and new items to see. We try to have a balanced mix of mediums, so you will find photography, watercolors, oils, acrylic, mosaics, ceramics, hand-tooled sketch books, greeting cards, gourd art, jewelry and much more."

New to the bazaar this year are hot apple cider and holiday treats, a canned goods collection (guests will receive one raffle ticket per unexpired can brought to the bazaar), and a silent auction of art donated by the participating artists.

Several jewelers will be displaying their creative work, including Linda Melvin, Cindy Alcoset, Dolores Renner, Susan Schulte, Karla Nederloff, Cheryl DeLain, Nira Levy, Laura Stearn, Diane Abadie, and Carolyn Cretella.

Ceramic artists Karen Fidel, Lily Pourat and Ronni Pitt join glass artists Carol Korfin, Kate O'Brien and Bobbie Hirschhoff.

Completing the line-up are: fiber artists Ellen Cramer, Eva Zuzuarregui and Nancy-Jo Klaphaak, mosaic artist Terry Oshrin, photographers Kathy Chin and Pam Waldman, painters Toni Williams, Ellablanche Salmi, Julie Bubar and Judy Salinsky, leather sketch books by Steve Lutzker, computer artist Cy Waldman and gourd artist Grace Swanson.

Admission to the Bazaar and ample parking are free.

Visit www.OffTrackGallery.com or contact swanson121@cox.net.

San Dieguito Art Guild Off Track

'Small Image Show' at Off Track Gallery hosts reception, discounts on art Dec. 7

The San Dieguito Art Guild, which runs the Off Track Gallery, will present ribbons to the winners of its annual Small Image Show and will also present a $500 check to Stardust Arts, a youth art program that provides children with visual art skills.

The event will take place at the gallery's December reception on Sunday, Dec. 7, which will also have wine and appetizers.

The Small Image Show, an annual event, showcases paintings, photography, drawings, computer arts and more — artwork that measures 12 inches or less in each direction. These smaller images, which are typically more affordable, are offered this time of year just in time for holiday gift-giving.

A bonus on the day of the reception is a storewide 10 percent off all artwork in the Off Track Gallery. The reception is from 3:30 to 6 p.m., but the sale is valid all day during regular business hours, which are 10 a.m.-6 p.m.

The San Dieguito Art Guild, a 501(c)3 nonprofit founded in 1965, is dedicated to furthering artistic understanding and fostering artistic growth of its members and the community by promoting interest, education, knowledge and skills in the visual arts. The Guild celebrates its 50th year anniversary in 2015.

Off Track Gallery is at 937 S. Coast Highway 101, Suite C-103, in the Lumberyard Shopping Center (behind St. Tropez and Starbucks) in downtown Encinitas. Call 760-942-3636; visit OffTrackGallery.com.

Welcome to the San Dieguito Art Guild!!

Dipak Gupta (oil)

Bonnie Hinline-Kempner (pastel, oil, watercolor)

Message from SDAG President

As I write this, we have just finished a very successful Holiday Bazaar. The customers who came, (and there were a lot) loved what all our artists had to sell and enjoyed the refreshments we provided while they shopped. I believe we have solidified this event as an annual event, and with the addition of the Silent Auction of items donated by each artist participant this year, the Guild will benefit along with the individual artists.

The Co-Chairs, Grace Swanson, Karen Fidel and myself, along with committee members Linda Melvin, Pam Waldman, Steve Lutzker, Toni Williams, Cindy Alcoset and Terry Oshrin, really worked hard to make this event a success. The participants all took on a job to make the day run smoothly, and the volunteers who helped out at the entrance to tell people about the Silent Auction and to get their emails were greatly appreciated. Thank you Deborah Henry, Vicki Emmons and Bonnie Hineline-Kempner, and anyone I have forgotten to thank.

Don't forget to attend the December Reception - different time and day than past ones - Sunday, December 7th from 3:30pm to 6pm. Chuck McPherson, the judge of our "Good Things Come in Small Packages - Small Images and More Show" will be awarding prizes and I will be presenting our own Cheryl Ehlers of Stardust Arts a check for her foundation to help with the wonderful work she does with children through art. I'm hoping we have a record number of members and guests attend and look forward to seeing you there.

Save the date - Saturday, January 17th- Annual Member Appreciation Event. You won't want to miss this! All kinds of fun things await you in our 50th anniversary special version of this event!

SDAG Calendar for 2015 Commemorating the Guild's 50th Anniversary!

San Dieguito Art Guild's 2015 Calendar Now for Sale

Fourteen artists from the San Dieguito Art Guild have their original artwork published in a glossy, high-quality calendar for the 2015 year. Each artist selected a month that had significance for them. For some it was their birthday month. For others, it was to honor a friend or family member. The calendar commemorates the guild's 50th anniversary as a non-profit organization dedicated to furthering artistic understanding and fostering artistic growth of members and the community at large by promoting interest, education, knowledge and skills in the visual arts.

On the cover is a stunning oil painting of plumeria flowers by Jennifer Richards, whose experience with painting began when she moved to Encinitas and was inspired to create unique mementos of the beautiful local scenery for her own home. Carol and Harvey Korfin share the month of January with friend and fellow artist, Karen Fidel. Carol displays one of her fused glass animals while Harvey shows his very popular clocks made from recycled computer boards. Karen is a very successful ceramic artist. February showcases the algorithmic art of Cyé Waldman. Linda Melemed chose March for her watercolor of Huntington Gardens koi and Sharon Hoffman's entry for April honors her sister, Pat, in a painting titled, "Pat's Bouquet". Vilma Malmberg, the only surviving artist of the 12 founding members of the guild (which was formed in 1965), chose the month of May. She chose to show her watercolor, "Seaquarium". Grace Swanson, gourd artist, chose the month of June to honor her mother. Lisa Curry features her watercolor, "Morning Mist" to showcase July. Adam Koltz shows his plein air watercolor "Star of India - Port Running Lights" for the month of August while Sandy Heath's hammered copper pieces grace the month of September. You will find Linda Melvin's very colorful watercolor, "Flight" in the month of October, Judy Salinsky's oil painting "Sunshine Swamis" in the month of November, and Donna Butnik's painting "Holiday Visit with Muggins" in the month of December.

Stop by the Off Track Gallery to purchase a calendar for yourself or to give as a gift. $15 per calendar. Supplies are limited.

"Fun with Glass"

with Kate O'Brien

In this four (4) part class participants will be introduced to the art of glass fusing and slumping. Students will complete three (3) projects of their choosing using System 96 glass. The instructor will discuss the fundamentals of fusing and glass kiln firing schedules. Written instructions will be provided to each participant and all tools needed will be provided during class time.

A $30 materials fee which includes kiln firings will be paid to the instructor at the first class.

The materials fee is $30 paid by the student and $10 paid by the Guild for a total of $40. Cost is higher because fusible glass is most costly and there will be multiple firings.

Get the wow power in your watercolor paintings!

By Learning Design and Composition.
with Jayne Spencer

This is a great class to take for painters in all levels. Design and composition is the key of all successful paintings. You will learn how to keep the interest of the viewer and learn placement of elements, such as value, lines, colors, and shapes within the format. You will learn the most common uses of division of space. And about thumbnails and color studies. This class is fun and enlightening for all levels.

Acrylic Painting

with Barbara Roth

Thursdays, Jan. 8, 15, 22 and 29, 2015

from 12noon-3pm

You can paint with acrylic paint on all kinds of surfaces and get tons of different effects. Acrylic painting is water based, easy to clean up and simple to learn.

You will complete one 8" x 10" painting in each meeting of this 4 session workshop.

In the first session you will learn how to complete a simple still life using a limited palette of paint. In the 2nd session you will complete a simple landscape painting. In the 3rd session you will complete a painting of plants or flowers or vegetables from a photograph. In the last session you will learn how to paint buildings and architectural elements.

Some of the techniques you will see demonstrated and learn include: avoiding muddy colors when you are using mixing many colors of paint, mixing colors, creating depth, designing a captivating composition, glazing and adding texture, using mediums, painting with variety of brushes strokes, and how to use the color wheel. You will leave class with enough skill and confidence to continue painting in acrylic on your own.

You may bring your own supplies or buy them from the teacher for a $15 supply fee.

Rules for Monthly Show

INFORMATION ABOUT THE MONTHLY SHOW

BEFORE YOU BRING YOUR ENTRIES TO THE MONTHLY SHOW, PLEASE. . . .

1. If your work is on a wrapped canvas, make sure that the edges are painted also.
2. All wall art must have D or triangle brackets and wire, NOT SAWTOOTH HANGERS or SCREW EYES
3. The brackets need to be placed on each side about one quarter of the way down the side.
4. The wire should be tight enough so that when the art is hung, the picture hanger will not be visible.
5. The edges of the wire need to be taped to protect against injury.

Wall artwork for the Monthly Show is divided into three entry fee categories:

- 1) under 17" measured on the diagonal: $12
- 2) between 17" and 36" measured on the diagonal: $17
- 3) over 36" measured on the diagonal: $22

Contact Lynn Ely at artsbylynn@gmail.com for more details on these categories and also about exhibiting 3-dimensional artwork.

All Monthly Show entries must remain on display for the entire month unless sold. They may then be replaced with a similiar size and type of artwork.

Please visit the Off Track website at this link to review the rules for sumbmitting artwork in the monthly shows at the gallery:

December Monthly Show Judge - Chuck McPherson

Small Images and More Show!

Artist's Biography

In his seventh year as a watercolorist, Chuck's efforts have garnered hundreds of awards for his artwork and double Signature status with The San Diego Watercolor Society and National Watercolor Society.

He served two years as the Member Shows Director on the SDWS Board, and as Third VP on the NWS Board, plus a concurrent three-year stint as Newsletter Chair on the Board of Directors for the San Diego Museum of Art Artists Guild.

Chuck paints full-time and builds his reputation through a quick wit and his 6" brush, flamboyantly embellishing paintings with props borrowed from large and intimate crowds... like lipstick & coffee. He co-founded BallastPointGallery.com and serves as a discerning art show juror and critique specialist.

Ballast Point

January Monthly Show Judge - John Modesitt

John Modesitt (b. 1955) was born in Los Alamos, New Mexico on November 6, 1955, but he spent most of his early years in southern California. He started painting at the age of thirteen.

My father's poster collection of French Impressionist Paintings were my initial inspiration to paint and draw. Monet was my favorite, I knew even then that painting would be my life's work. Modesitt attended a number a of institutions of higher learning in California, including Santa Barbara City College, the Santa Barbara Art Museum and Cabrillo City College in Santa Cruz.

Modesitt moved to New York City in 1980 to study art more seriously. He was engaged in formal study at the Metropolitan Museum of Art from 1981 until 1984. For the most part he was discouraged by the domination of modern art in the galleries and with the instruction given which was a non-disciplined approach to painting. Modesitt decided to advance his techniques and aesthetic by studying the works of the master painters which lined the walls of the Metropolitan.

Modesitt moved to Midwest for a brief period of enrollment at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago in the fall of 1985. He had previously traveled widely in the area sketching and painting. As in New York Modesitt again spent his time studying the collection of the Art Institute, especially the renowned paintings of such French masters as Manet, Monet, Pissarro and Renoir. In addition to painting outdoors on the Fox River, he also found time to offer a class in plein air painting.

Modesitt returned to California in the early 1990's and established a home and studio in Solana Beach. Here he began to paint en plein air the many facets of the California vista: coastals, the Sierra Nevada Mountains, desert scenes and the San Diego foothills alive with meadows of blooming flowers. In 1999 Modesitt and his family established a summer residence in the small village of Griselles in the Burgundy countryside. It is a place of tranquility with no more than twenty inhabitants which has inspired the artist to produce a portfolio of distinguished paintings.

John Modesitt emerged from a new wave of California Impressionists who paint in the style of Payne, Rose and Braun. Like these early masters Modesitt paints what he feels about nature and translates his emotional and spiritual experiences into rhythmic color compositions on canvas.

Artist: "I will start teaching oil painting again beginning this month. The classes are in my home studio. Usually private or a group of 2-3. Cost is $40 hour per person. If anyone is interested, please let me know. It will have an emphasis on impressionism. I enjoy teaching and stopped for 20 years. I used to teach at the Museum of Art San Diego and also community college as well as plein air classes. This will be a studio setting."

ONE-ON-ONE WITH EVA ZUZUARREGUI

U-T profiles of notable local people

Art in everyday life

Artist Eva Zuzuarregui works in extremes.

On one end, she's a metalsmith who makes her own intricate and dramatic jewelry out of a Barrio Logan studio she shares with fellow metal designers. (See it at evazuzu.com)

At the other end, the Carlsbad resident is a popular apron designer who sells her sturdy product to artists, florists, hairstylists, chefs and more. (zuzugui.com)

Zuzuarregui will display her pieces on Saturday at the Made in San Diego Holiday Market. The free event will feature more than 40 local vendors, live music. See umetinfo.com for details.

The artist, who first moved to San Diego from Mexico, in 2002 to study at San Diego State University, talks about her art.

Q. Do you think San Diego is good about supporting local artists?

A. San Diego's support for artists is improving with the creation of artistic events such as the Barrio Art Crawl, a free self-guided tour of open studios, galleries, public art and local business in Barrio Logan. The creation of collective spaces where artists can display their works, such as the San Dieguito Art Guild in Encinitas, is yet another sign of increased venues for artists in the county.

SD Art Guild's new classes include Chinese brush painting, glass-fusing, watercolor

Give the gift of art classes this holiday season! "Because We Like HUE" art classes are taught by the members of the San Dieguito Art Guild, a 501(c)3 nonprofit. Contact Kate O'Brien at zelda1970@cox.net to reserve your space and pay for classes.

Offered this session are:

- Acrylic Painting with Barbara Roth, noon-3 p.m. Thursdays, Jan. 8, 15, 22 and 29, 2015 (San Marcos area)

You can paint with acrylic paint on all kinds of surfaces and get tons of different effects. Acrylic painting is water-based, easy to clean up and simple to learn.

Students will complete one 8-inch-by-10-inch painting in each meeting of this four-session workshop: a simple still life using a limited palette; a simple landscape; a painting of plants, flowers or vegetables from a photo; and a painting of buildings and architectural elements.

Techniques include: mixing colors, creating depth, designing a captivating composition, glazing and adding texture, painting with a variety of brush strokes, and using the color wheel. Bring your own supplies or buy them from the teacher for a $15 supply fee.

Class fee is $100.

- "Fun with Glass" with Kate O'Brien, 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturdays, Jan 17, 24, 31, and Feb. 7, 2015, Encinitas Community Center, Arts and Crafts Room, 1140 Oakcrest Park Drive, Encinitas.

This four-part class introduces the art of glass fusing and slumping. Students will complete three projects of their choosing using System 96 glass. The instructor will discuss the fundamentals of fusing and glass kiln firing schedules. Written instructions will be provided to each participant and all tools needed will be provided during class time.

~~The materials fee, which includes kiln firings,~~ is $30 paid to the instructor at the first class, and $10 paid by the Guild for a total of $40. Cost is higher because fusible glass is more costly and there will be multiple firings.

Cost of all four classes is $100 plus materials fee.

Email Kate at zelda1970@cox.net to register for this class.

Mail check for $100 made out to SDAG to:

Kate O'Brien, 835 Hampton Court, Vista, CA 92081

The $100 class fee must be received within four mail days after registration to hold a spot in class.

- Chinese Brush Painting with Lisa Curry, 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Fridays, Jan. 9, 16, 23, 30, Encinitas Community Center, 1140 Oakcrest Park Drive, Encinitas.

Have fun learning Chinese brushstroke. You will have the opportunity to learn that Chinese painting is like a martial art-the importance of posture, how to wield the brush, and the state of mind necessary to complete a painting with 'chi' or energy!

Classes are four sessions of three hours per session. Fee is $100 (plus $10 materials fee payable to teacher first day of class)

- Intermediate Watercolor Classes with Linda Melvin, 2-5 p.m. Thursdays, Jan. 22, 29, Feb. 5, 12; classes are held at instructor's home in the Solana Beach area.

Kick your watercolor technique up a notch and improve the quality of your paintings with the expert help of this talented painter/teacher.

Fee is $100, plus $14.50 materials fee for 300# Arches watercolor paper, to be paid to the teacher at the first session. If you have watercolor supplies, please bring them.

- Design and Composition with Jayne Spencer, 3-6 p.m. Mondays, Feb. 2, 9, 16, 23; Encinitas area.

This is a great class to take for painters in all levels. Design and composition are the key to all successful paintings. Learn how to keep the viewer's interest and learn placement of elements, such as value, lines, colors, and shapes within the format. Learn the most common uses of division of space, and about thumbnails and color studies.

This class is fun and enlightening for all levels. Fee is $100.

Treasurer's Report –Linda Melemed

The Treasurer's Report was distributed to members via e-mail in advance of the meeting for review and will be filed in the Secretary's binder in the Gallery.

Linda noted that artist sales were up and that total payments to artists were $6566.67 for November.

Linda went over a number of small business items to keep the board updated, including whether or not should continue having post box and if membership in the 101 business association should continue.

Of concern to Linda, is the large amount of cash that guild has that is currently not generating much income. $100,000 is split between the checking account and two separate money market account. The general consensus is that the board needs to find ways for the money to make a higher interest rate. Linda will continue to research options.

Motion: Carol Korfin motioned and Linda Melvin seconded to have Linda Melemed and Grace Swanson move the cash, leaving a $25,000 reserve in the checking account, to the higher interest money market account until a higher interest investment can be found. Motion passes: In Favor : 11; Against 0; Abstain 0.

Minutes of November Meeting – Kate O'Brien/Gayle Baker

Motion: Lynn Ely motioned and Linda Melvin seconded to approve the Nov 18, 2013 Board Meeting Minutes with corrections. The Minutes were originally acknowledged and reviewed by the Board members via e-mail. Motion passed: In Favor 11; Against 0; Abstain 0.

Gallery Manager: Linda Melvin

Linda Melvin reported that there has been a change to the jewelry committee. Since Dolores Renner is the current floor chair, she will also head the jewelry committee. Linda will continue to be on the committee.

Linda detailed the continuing issues that jewelry committee has with Phyllis Rothbart who won't comply with jewelry committee guidelines. Lengthy discussion ensued.

Sandy Health noted that the board needs to be consistent with consequences.

Motion: Lynn Ely motioned and Grace Swanson seconded to remove Phyllis Rothbart's work from the gallery for continued non-compliance and refund her rotation fee.

Linda Melvin and Sandy Health will remove Phyllis Rothbart's work Monday, December 16, 2013 and Terry Allen will notify her of the board decision.

Linda also requested that a reserve of $200 be maintained at the gallery for the purpose of making change. The

She also noted that after talking with a former member that it would benefit to call new members and invite them to events and encourage their participation.

Discussion of new requirements for sales receipts.

Programs – Julie Bubar

Julie noted a small change in schedule for upcoming program has been moved from April 24 to April 17.

Julie Bubar departed 11:15

Membership Report – nothing to report

Calendar Report – Pamela Waldman

Pamela reported that the new TV for the gallery has been purchased for $378.97 and will be installed in the gallery shortly.

She also noted that the guild will eventually need a new calendar software program. The company that produced our current program has gone out of business. She will research options for the future.

Webmistress Report – Carol Korfin –

Carol reported that password protected sections that have been requested for the website have not been forgotten, only postponed.

Carol also reported on the success of the Holiday Bazaar.

Survey results from participating artists revealed that most would do the event again, many would be willing to assist with the planning committee and that they like the building where the bazaar was held.

An informal survey of customers revealed that they like the event.

Carol brought up the possibilities on booking the show for next year. Other times of year were also discussed for bazaars.

Discussion ensued.

The subject was tabled until a later date.

Monthly Show Report – Lynn Ely/ Jill Treadwell Svendsen

Lynn indicated that December was a good show month with $1363 for take-in with 113 pieces of artwork.

Lynn also noted there were some issues presenting the award for the small image show at the December 14 reception.

It was also pointed out that because of holiday schedules the take-in dates for the monthly show had been shifted. This went unnoticed by several member who had wanted to participate in the December show.

Jill urged board members to submit jobs for member participation. She noted that every board member should have an assistant.

Wall Chair– Grace Swanson

Grace reported that she had one wall-renter replacement and one that needed to be replaced.

On the Because We Like Hue classes, Grace noted that there were some issues filling the classes and that she needed some PR assistance in advertising them.

For Mother's day, Grace reported that several homes are in the works for the tour with definite maybes.

Try It You'll Like it classes are scheduled for Jan 13 and sign-ups will go out Dec 17.

Grace noted that the gallery does not need extra staffers during the Encinitas holiday parade. And, staffers should be notified when their shift falls during a city event that could effect parking.

Hospitality – Devora Safran

Devora reported on the Dec 14 reception. She thanked everyone for helping and felt the event went well. She will review the volunteer list of who actually showed-up for designated shifts. It was also noted that she was able to stock-up on reception supplies at a restaurant supply store.

Devora also questioned who to contact about having the gallery store-room floor cleaned. And, she inquired about extra hospitality supplies that the guild no longer used and if they could be disposed of.

Paint Rag – nothing to report

Job Coordination- Sandy Heath

Sandy reported that the jobs situation has improved and she is getting much better responses from members. There are still a couple of problem people that she is keeping tabs on.

Discussion ensued.
