

July Monthly Show Judge - Sally Phillips

Sally Phillips has been working with Pastels on Fine Art paper for three decades. Her love of the medium began with photography. The soft edges that can be achieved with pastels are reminiscent of a soft focus on the lens of a camera. No other medium can duplicate the transparent look of pastels.

As a designer she began using the camera to capture the moment and used those moments to create her pastels. Sally's early work were from the streets of Venice, California. Her work was shown and purchased by the Robert Berman Gallery in Venice before she left to live on Kauai.

On the island her focus shifted to the incredible, pristine skies above and the ocean surrounding the land. The colors on the island were undeniably brilliant and the medium of pastel could lift you right into the skies where the clouds played out a constant drama from sunrise to sunset.

After moving back to the West Coast, Sally Phillips began teaching her very personal technique at the San Diego Art Institute. The California coast has provided a wealth of vibrant images of ocean, coast and sky.

ARTIST MICHELLE CHAPMAN

When people think of Michelle Chapman...they think of a very creative being. Whether it's painting, photography, graphic design, ceramics, jewelry, interior design, etc. I'm in love with all things art! I have been passionate about art from a very early age. My hope is that I inspire people around me, and help them to develop a love for the arts like I have. Art brings excitement, joy, happiness, fulfillment, and balance to my life. Through it I am able to escape for a moment and just get lost in the process. Without out art in my life I would be a lost and lonely soul process of creating art. Through my paintings I am able to express myself and show my emotions on canvas. Although painting is a very personal experience for me I love when it evokes emotion and provokes a thought from the people viewing it. My hope is that it holds the viewers attention for more than just a fleeting moment.

I was a realist painter for many years... mostly portraits. I would become so focused on making them perfect that I lost the real reason I was creating art. I didn't find it relaxing or satisfying anymore, and it became more stressful than fun. Then I discovered abstract art! Now I am able to enjoy the

I would like to teach my students to tap into their subconscious. I want them to connect with their inner being, to dig deep into their soul and bring to surface their thoughts, emotions, and feelings and let it spill onto the canvas. Whether they are experiencing turmoil, stress, and conflict, or they are going through a very joyous time in their life...I think abstract expressionism is an exhilarating and liberating way of expressing oneself through their art!

SDAG and Pinterest

Are you on Pinterest? If you have a Pinterest account you can "Follow" the SDAG boards by visiting <https://www.pinterest.com/sandieguitoart/> and clicking the red "Follow" button at the top right corner. Are you on Pinterest AND have a board dedicated solely to your art? We'd love to help promote you - please send a link to swanson121@cox.net or contact@JenniferRichards.com and SDAG will follow your board.

Have you heard of Pinterest but have no idea what it is or what to do with it? They have a Getting Started guide at <https://help.pinterest.com/en/guide/all-about-pinterest>. Think of it as a network of bulletin boards filled with millions of pretty pictures submitted by users all around the world. Use it to gather inspiration, advertise art and products, and share pretty things. Why is this beneficial to us as artists? Because we are creating and selling things with visual appeal, and Pinterest (unlike Facebook and most other social media sites) is all about visual things!

August Monthly Show Judge - Igor Koutsenko

Igor Koutsenko was born in Evpatoria, a resort city on the Crimean Peninsula on the Black Sea. His father brought Igor to the Children's Art School in his hometown after his son demonstrated artistic ability at a young age. At age eleven, Koutsenko was accepted to the adult art studio directed by the acclaimed artist Zvyagintsev who encouraged his talent. Later Igor was educated at the Penza School of Art (class of E. Iodynin) and received rigorous training in the old traditions of Russian realist art. While living in Moscow, he successfully used the Moscow art market to sell his works to Russian and foreign collectors. His experience in Moscow allowed him to fully realize himself as an independent artist.

Koutsenko immigrated to the United States in 1992 settling in Oklahoma City where he taught fine art at the University of Central Oklahoma. In 1995, he was granted permanent United States residency as an alien of extraordinary abilities.

In 1998 Koutsenko visited Southern California and was attracted by its beautiful scenery and climate that reminded him of his boyhood surroundings in Crimea. Since moving to Southern California, he continues to produce original work at his private studio in Fallbrook. Igor also teaches drawing and painting classes at the Fallbrook School of The Arts.

Throughout his career, Igor was featured in numerous articles, newspapers, and magazines as well as on artistaday.com. Please visit the PRESS page for some excerpts. Igor also appeared in "Artbreak" on the Bravo channel.

September Monthly Show Judge - Deron Cohen

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Deron Cohen, a San Diego native, has shown his paintings extensively throughout San Diego. Most recently, he has been in shows at Project X Gallery, The Museum of the Living Artist, The San Diego Art Department, Sanctuary Gallery, Limbo Fine Arts, and Sushi Gallery. Deron has just started to show in other cities, most recently at the Rialto Theater in Corpus Christi, Texas and The Nico Gallery in Seattle, Washington. You can see his work online at deroncohen.com

Deron helped found Paint Night Group, a group of artists originating in San Diego that have been collaborating together for the past 15 years. They have shown as a group all over San Diego and in 2006 had a show at Gallery 4 in Amsterdam. Paint Night Group recently showed at the 2009 Beyond the Borders International Contemporary Art Fair in San Diego.

Along with his painting career, Deron has created magazine illustrations, done graphic design work, and taught others how to express themselves creatively through art. He has been creating curricula for children's art programs and teaching them. Deron also has been teaching adults how to paint at the San Diego Art Department for the past 10 years and, in the past year, with Painting & Vino. Mostly recently, Deron has been teaching one-on-one webcam classes online through Google Helpouts.

ARTIST STATEMENT:

I paint stories that I make up as I go along. Love, War, Peace, Spirit, Nature, Birth, Life, Death, the Mind and the Universe grapple with each other in a vivid explosion of color. Imagination runs wild and is made real in these images. Imagination is an infinite vessel filled with all our knowledge and everything else that will ever be. The images I create are designed to find a crack in your consciousness so they can seep into your mind and spark your imagination.

Aug. 16th, Workshop: "Unleash Your Inner Pollock"

ARTIST MICHELLE CHAPMAN

When people think of Michelle Chapman...they think of a very creative being. Whether it's painting, photography, graphic design, ceramics, jewelry, interior design, etc. I'm in love with all things art! I have been passionate about art from a very early age. My hope is that I inspire people around me, and help them to develop a love for the arts like I have. Art brings excitement, joy, happiness, fulfillment, and balance to my life. Through it I am able to escape for a moment and just get lost in the process. Without out art in my life I would be a lost and lonely soul

I was a realist painter for many years... mostly portraits. I would become so focused on making them perfect that I lost the real reason I was creating art. I didn't find it relaxing or satisfying anymore, and it became more stressful than fun. Then I discovered abstract art! Now I am able to enjoy the process of creating art. Through my paintings I am able to express myself and show my emotions on canvas. Although painting is a very personal experience for me I love when it evokes emotion and provokes thought from the people viewing it. My hope is that it holds the viewers attention for more than just a fleeting moment.

I would like to teach my students to tap into their subconscious. I want them to connect with their inner being, to dig deep into their soul and bring to surface their thoughts, emotions, and feelings and let it spill onto the canvas. Whether they are experiencing turmoil, stress, and conflict, or they are going through a very joyous time in their life...I think abstract expressionism is an exhilarating and liberating way of expressing oneself through their art!

SEPT. 20TH, WORKSHOP WITH ARTIST SARAH STIEBER

Workshop on "seeing" color will demo and workshop painting a portrait using vibrant color.

Contemporary artist Sarah Stieber's Electric Realism paintings present a kaleidoscope to her world of wishful seeing, magnifying the human experience with dazzling color too often hidden in plain sight. From her studio in San Diego, California, Stieber vivaciously harnesses the bold and the vibrant. Her radiant figurative depictions showcase Stieber's fascination with the human condition. Her work shines a brilliant light on daily life, depicting her subjects in a moment of overcoming adversity and achieving the mindfulness and playfulness that reality often corrodes.

Stieber graduated Cum Laude with a BFA in Painting from Boston University. She has created custom work for global brands such as Marriott International and Effen Vodka. Her vibrant paintings are featured in art collections both nationally and internationally. She was selected as a Featured Artist for the famed Beverly Hills artSHOW and San Diego's North Park Festival of Arts. Her paintings were spotlighted with Sergott Contemporary Art Alliance at Spectrum Miami in December 2014.

Sarah Stieber will present a workshop on "seeing" color will demo and workshop painting a portrait using vibrant color.

SDAG and Pinterest

SDAG is now on Pinterest! This is a great way for the Guild and its members to promote our art and events to a worldwide audience and make it easier for locals to see what we're up to.

Are you on Pinterest? If you have a Pinterest account you can "Follow" the SDAG boards by visiting <https://www.pinterest.com/sandieguitoart/> and clicking the red "Follow" button at the top right corner.

Are you on Pinterest AND have a board dedicated solely to your art? We'd love to help promote you - please send a link to swanson121@cox.net or contact@JenniferRichards.com and SDAG will follow your board.

Have you heard of Pinterest but have no idea what it is or what to do with it? They have a Getting Started guide at <https://help.pinterest.com/en/guide/all-about-pinterest>. Think of it as a network of bulletin boards filled with millions of pretty pictures submitted by users all around the world. Use it to gather inspiration, advertise art and products, and share pretty things. Why is this beneficial to us as artists? Because we are creating and selling things with visual appeal, and Pinterest (unlike Facebook and most other social media sites) is all about visual things!

Guild President and fused glass artist Carol

Korfin added, "Even if you have been to our Holiday Bazaar in the past, there are new artists and new items to see."

There will be a silent auction of artworks donated by the participating artists.

Come enjoy hot apple cider, yummy treats, raffle, silent auction, and art for sale by artists: paintings, jewelry, photography, gourds, glass, ceramics, mosaics, fiber art, cards, prints and more.

HEART OF MY HEARTS
 The heart on the right is an original tessellating Ojai curve by Cye, composed of spiral segments. This curve contains a heart and skate. The space filling tiles are mapped into a heart shape.

GARLAND OF HEARTS
 In the wreath above, spiral heart curves are reimagined as filling an equilateral triangle. The triangles were configured in a six-pointed star and turned inside out by mapping its inverse.

"I love to paint with a lot of bright color and I love the texture and thickness of acrylic paint. I paint to share; to entice a feeling from the viewer."
-Sharon Hoffman

"I want to bring to the viewer, or owner of the painting, a vibrant presentation of a day he or she has spent, or dreamed about being, at sea."
- Adam Koltz

Karen Fidel makes pottery that incorporates natural organic elements.

Carol Korfin creates one-of-a-kind fused glass art. Harvey Korfin up-cycles computer parts into unique clocks.

A founding member of the guild, Vilma Malmberg loves to paint nature and abstracts, and is a delightful role model for younger artists.

Sandy Heath loves working with metal. There are endless ways to fold, enamel, etch, hammer, texture, repousse, and patina. She enjoys new challenges and the delight of discovery in each piece.

Cye Waldman's algorithmic art is created from complex mathematical tessellations. His animated works are regularly featured at the National Curve Bank. curvebank.calstatela.edu

Grace Swanson's preferred medium is gourds. She cleans, burns, sands, and dyes them to create unique sculptural works of art.

Linda Melvin is an accomplished watercolorist, oil painter, mixed-media artist, and jewelry designer.

Linda Melemed has a particular fondness for painting animals, truly capturing their essence.

Lisa Curry's inspiration comes from the centeredness she discovers in herself while painting.

Award-winning artist Judy Salinsky strives to interject her positive, creative attitude and optimism into all her artistic endeavors.

Using a technique that is reminiscent of Jackson Pollack, Donna Butnik's paintings are full of vivid colors and mythic, dreamlike forms.

San Dieguito Art Guild celebrates 50 years!

In 1965, Sue Beere, an oil painter, called together friends and neighbors to a coffee at her Del Mar home. Those twelve artists, all of whom lived in the San Dieguito area (from Del Mar to Leucadia), wanting to promote greater understanding and appreciation of the fine arts in the area, formed the San Dieguito Art Guild.

In June of 1982, the San Dieguito Art Guild merged with the OffTrack Gallery located in the downstairs portion of Leucadia's old train station building — the Pannikin was upstairs.

In 1989, in celebration of its 25th year anniversary, the San Dieguito Art Guild received the prestigious GRUMBACHER SILVER MEDALLION AWARD for outstanding service to San Diego's North County's artists — an endeavor that includes encouragement, competition, artistic environment, education, opportunity and advancement.

The San Dieguito Art Guild is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that promotes the arts. Since 2005 the OffTrack Gallery has exhibited works by Guild artists in the Encinitas' Lumberyard Shopping Center.

Note from Paint Rag Editor

Hello fellow artists.

This issue of the Paint Rag is the final newsletter in this editor's call of duty. Starting next month for the October issue, Kathy Chin will be taking over the job. Please contact her from now on with any information and news articles that you want included each month in the Paint Rag.

Kathy Chin can be reached at kathychinartist@roadrunner.com

I have enjoyed the editor job for 5 years. I would like to thank you for all the contributions you have made to make this newsletter each and every month the creation that it is. I'll miss being the editor for sure but I will still be involved in the Off Track and have been elected as Co-Chair for Wall Renters and will continue to be on the Board of Directors.

Keep on creating.

Best to you all!!!

Message from SDAG President

My, how time flies! Last month you elected our new board and this week at our board meeting we installed that board. And it is now the start of my second term! A few of our board have completed their terms and are not returning. Thanks so much to Lin Holzinger, Rita Hohweiler-Cecil and Devora Safran for all the hard work they put in during their tenure. Their hard work is appreciated by all, especially me! Welcome to the new board members this year - Joyce Nash, Judy Salinsky, Sandy Heath, Ellen Cramer, Kathy Chin, and Cheryl DeLain. We are so pleased and excited to have you join us.

We started some planning and you will hear more about that in the months to come. I will just tell you that we hope to have six member receptions a year to help promote sales at the gallery and are looking into some off site events for members to participate in.

Mother's Day Weekend Art, Garden, and Studio Tour Update - Year 2016

Laura Lowenstein has graciously agreed to chair our annual event next year in 2016, IF we can fill the position of "Home Finders". Last year she, with major help from Grace Swanson, took that on, and it is not part of the Chair's job.

Houses need to be found between November 1 and December 31 , so we are looking for three people to step up and take this position NOW.

Be aware that if three people do not come forward now, we will not have our Mother's Day tour next year.

We can't wait until we start having our monthly Mother's Day meetings - which will start in January - that will be too late to house search.

So please respond to either:

Me (Carol Korfin): President@sandieguitoartguild.com

or Laura: lloenstein@outlook.com

Also, if any members know of houses that have impressive or unusual gardens or studios (with adequate parking), please send Laura the info to put on the list for consideration.

Membership Renewal

Another year has passed and the end of the SDAG/Off Track Gallery fiscal year is approaching soon. Your membership renewal is due by August 31, 2015. However, the family membership fee (family members in SAME household) is now $125. Please send in your payment by August 31st to ensure that you continue to receive all the benefits of the Guild, including emails, Paint Rags, etc. Please print sdag membership renewal form and mail to:

Membership Biography Binder

The BIO BINDER is waiting for members' bios.
Look under the table that the shrink wrap baskets are on.

Customers often ask for more information about an artist whose work they have been admiring.

So put YOUR bio in the binder.

Here's the format: They are in alphabetical order. Everyone gets two pages. Check out Lynn Ely's for the best format. When you open the binder, you see her bio has one page on the left with pictures and one page on the right with her write-up. Just put down what you want people to know about you and your artwork. No problem if your two pages are on the front and back of ONE sheet. You'll notice that I put in blank white paper to separate those (so the back of one artist's bio is not showing with the front of another artist).

Angela Jackson Demo

SDAG Angela Jackson Demos, Dialogue & Art took place on Sunday, July 19, 2016.

Wow, what an amazing workshop, Artist Angela Jackson gave her all, mixed media attitude! Tranquil art was produced in two hours of perfect harmony...the ocean as our theme. A generous thank you to Angela! We were given the tools: acrylic paint, art tissue, modeling paste and hot liquid bees wax to work with. Each participant left with one unique artwork!

Thank you to the Mizel Grant, Art Division/City of Encinitas, and Encinitas Library for sponsoring this Mixed Media group of SDAG artists!

Luv Art,

Julie Bubar

- 1) under 17" measured on the diagonal: $12
- 2) between 17" and 36" measured on the diagonal: $17

SEPT. 20TH, WORKSHOP WITH ARTIST SARAH STIEBER

Workshop on "seeing" color will demo and workshop painting a portrait using vibrant color.

Contemporary artist Sarah Stieber's Electric Realism paintings present a kaleidoscope to her world of wishful seeing, magnifying the human experience with dazzling color too often hidden in plain sight. From her studio in San Diego, California, Stieber vivaciously harnesses the bold and the vibrant. Her radiant figurative depictions showcase Stieber's fascination with the human condition. Her work shines a brilliant light on daily life, depicting her subjects in a moment of overcoming adversity and achieving the mindfulness and playfulness that reality often corrodes.

Stieber graduated Cum Laude with a BFA in Painting from Boston University. She has created custom work for global brands such as Marriott International and Effen Vodka. Her vibrant paintings are featured in art collections both nationally and internationally. She was selected as a Featured Artist for the famed Beverly Hills artSHOW and San Diego's North Park Festival of Arts. Her paintings were spotlighted with Sergott Contemporary Art Alliance at Spectrum Miami in December 2014.

Sarah Stieber will present a workshop on "seeing" color will demo and workshop painting a portrait using vibrant color.

Materials: 1. At least 3 brushes of varying sizes. 5 + brushes recommended. 2.

Canvas or board to paint on, recommended sizes between 12"x12" and 18" x 24", any shape is fine. If you're on a budget, paper suitable to acrylic painting is fine. 3. Various paints. This is a recommended color list, but please feel free to bring your own favorite vibrant colors, or what you have at home (no brown or black!) Be sure to have a range because we won't be doing much mixing. 1. Green (phallo turquoise, yellow-green, phallo green, etc) 6. Dioxidine Purple 7. Pink (Rose)

Learn to play a few art games to help open the creative channel. The workshop will bring out that inner doodle.

"Every child is an artist. The problem is how to remain an artist once we grow up." Pablo Picasso Loosen up and let your subconscious take over. "My personal inspiration is drawn from dreams, my models and nature surrounding me. My best creations are when the painting paints itself. I just stand out of the way; and I let the drips turn into a visual melody".

In the workshop we will be using various materials. A limited supply of materials are available to share. Please bring your own materials if you can - set of oil pastels, (no chalk) - Watercolors - Prang semi-moist water color sets - Brushes for watercolor- small, medium - Personal sketch book, any size

Donna Butnik, a native Californian, studied with Artist Dorothy Cannon in Studio City. She received a BFA in 1979 from California Institute of the Arts, a school founded by Walt Disney. Her art work has been displayed in and about Encinitas. She participates in the yearly Arts Alive Banner project. "I love the idea of decorating the skyline" Her paintings are well loved in various homes. People enjoy her unique color schemes and the dream like imagery.

Michelle Chapman Workshop

Michelle Chapman's "Unleash Your Inner Pollock", Aug. 16th, explored eliminating the paint brush and easel, letting the human body get into the artwork, with movement on and off the canvas. Each artist attendee tapped into their inner being, that deep place where no one can see. Emotions ran with three different color pastels covering the canvas surface. Then ripped out articles from newspapers, magazines, stencils, and numbers were mod podge glued to the surface. Now the acrylic color begins, using scrappers, sponges, gloved hands; yes on your knees. Squirt bottles of pigment and swirls of color, layered the canvas.

Simple, messy and joyous abstract expressionism.

Again, another successful art experience funded in part by the Mizel Family Foundation Grant, City of Encinitas Art Division, Encinitas Library and the San Dieguito Art Guild.

SDAG and Pinterest

SDAG is now on Pinterest! This is a great way for the Guild and its members to promote our art and events to a worldwide audience and make it easier for locals to see what we're up to.

Are you on Pinterest? If you have a Pinterest account you can "Follow" the SDAG boards by visiting <https://www.pinterest.com/sandieguitoart/> and clicking the red "Follow" button at the top right corner.

Are you on Pinterest AND have a board dedicated solely to your art? We'd love to help promote you - please send a link to swanson121@cox.net or contact@JenniferRichards.com and SDAG will follow your board.

Have you heard of Pinterest but have no idea what it is or what to do with it? They have a Getting Started guide at <https://help.pinterest.com/en/guide/all-about-pinterest>. Think of it as a network of bulletin boards filled with millions of pretty pictures submitted by users all around the world. Use it to gather inspiration, advertise art and products, and share pretty things. Why is this beneficial to us as artists? Because we are creating and selling things with visual appeal, and Pinterest (unlike Facebook and most other social media sites) is all about visual things!

SDAG September 2015 Meeting Minutes

U.S. Bank

Encinitas, CA 92024

The meeting was held on September 28, 2015 at 10:00 a.m.

Officers Present: Linda Melemed, Susan Schulte, Karen Fidel, Lynn Ely, Sharon Hoffman, Linda Melvin, Julie Bubar, Terry Oshrin, Grace Swanson, Jill Treadwell Svendsen, Cindy Alcoset, Kathy Chin, Judy Salinsky, and Pamela Taylor Waldman,

Officers Absent: Carol Korfin, Dolores Renner, Aleksandra Owczarek, Cheryl DeLain, Joyce Nash, Sandy Heath, and Ellen Cramer

New Board Member: Carla Funk

The meeting was called to order at 10:03 a.m by Karen Fidel for Carol Korfin.

A special presentation was given by Cheryl Ehlers from the City of Encinitas. She was invited to attend the SDAG board meeting by Julie Bubar to talk about the Mizel Family Foundation Grant. SDAG was awarded $3,000 for the 2015/2016 year for the Demos, Dialogue, and More Program. This program is headed by Julie Bubar and held at the Encinitas Library on Sundays for ten months during the year. The monies are used to pay for artists to hold demonstrations and lectures and for supplies. Cheryl said that there is a need to ask for more donations for the raffle held at the demos. She said that there is a need for the monies to be tracked each month. Linda Melemed volunteered to keep track of the expenses each month for the grant. Linda will handle the formation of a committee to decide if matching funds will be given by SDAG to the grant.

Motion: A motion was made to approve the August minutes by Grace Swanson and seconded by Linda Melvin. The motion was approved by the board.

Treasurer's Report: Linda Melemed

Linda reported the cash balance is around $130,000. The accounts and deposits have been reconciled for the end of the fiscal year. There is $200 in petty cash and $100 in the office safe at the Off Track Gallery.

Motion: Jill Treadwell Svendsen motioned for the financial reports to be approved by the board with Linda Melvin seconding the motion. Approved by the board.

Programs - Julie Bubar: Three thank you notes to Julie by various attendees of the Demos, Dialogue, and More Program were read by Julie for her outstanding contributions and success of the program. At the Sarah Stieber program at the Encinitas Library, there were 30 in attendance with 80 RSVP's which shows the popularity of the program. The raffle included a $450 Sarah Stieber painting among other donated items.

Webmistress: Jill Treadwell Svendsen: Jill announced the website meeting will be held at September 30th at 1:00 p.m. There is a new jobs form under the membership heading on the website for requesting a job to be filled. Jill was discussing the various photo sizes for a fee for submission under individual artists.

Calendar Chair - Pam Waldman: Pam talked about the light bulbs and track lighting that have been done so far at the Off Track Gallery. There has been $2,041.00 spent so far with a bill of $528.00 and another $703.00 order is on the way, a total of $3273.00. Pam said that Bob Dudek, the electrician that the gallery has used to install the fixtures, bid $2,200.00 to finish the gallery lighting. A decision by the gallery manager, Linda Melvin, said to get another bid first before the board decides to spend more funds.

Carla Funk: Carl was installed as new Jobs Co-Chair to the board.

PR - Grace Swanson: Carol Korfin asked Grace to read a letter from Gayle Baker, a member of SDAG, requesting that our organization form a new social group. The group would be only for SDAG members and would be similar to the popular national "Meet-Up" group. The monthly activities would be announced in the Paint Rag to members about upcoming social events. The purpose of the social group is for members of SDAG to be able to get to know other members on a more personal level. Carol endorses the the group to be formed soon.

Motion: A motion was made by Grace for the SDAG social group to be formed with Gayle Baker in charge of the job and Linda Melvin seconding the motion. The board voted all in favor of the motion.

The budget for the next reception on October 10th is $170. Grace announced that the reception is all in place including the ads. The gallery sign post is still not fixed and the sign needs to be placed just below the window area. The last reception of this year is the 50th anniversary reception on December 12th. The presentation by Chuck McPherson for the awards of the "Small Images and More" show takes place at this reception, including holiday cheer! The last First Thursday was held at the gallery on Thursday, September 3rd.

The Encinitas Friends of the Arts is hosting the Dia de los Muertos festival again at the Community Center. There is a need for one of our members to man a table at the festival from 1:00 - 5:00 p.m. and a donation requested from our group, SDAG.

Motion: Terry Oshrin motioned for SDAG to donate $250 to the Dia de los Muertos program put on by the Encinitas Friends of the Arts. Susan Schulte seconded the motion. The board voted in favor of the motion.

The next Holiday Bazaar meeting is on September 30th at the Off Track Gallery. Twenty two people signed up as vendors at this year's bazaar held on November 14th, but there is a need for more vendors to sign up. Also, the food drive, which was so successful last year, is taking place again at this holiday bazaar.

Gallery Chair - Linda Melvin: Linda started out talking about a gentleman that she knew who makes inexpensive $5.00 frames and will get in touch with him for artists. Linda said not to turn down the air conditioning in the Off Track gallery, because of the electrical expense of cooling off the space once it is turned down or off. Tish Wynn suggested that window tinting on top of the gallery's windows will help keep the gallery cool. There is enough petty cash to cover the cost under $200.00. There has been an ordinance placed by the City of Encinitas that no plastic bags will be allowed by retailers in the city, so the gallery will provide paper bags instead.

Hospitality Chair - Co-Chair, Judy Salinsky: Judy has been busy with cleaning up the area in the back office used for hospitality/entertaining. She and her team have reorganized cabinets and shelves for supplies and relabeled them. At the next reception on October 10th, four small cocktail tables will be rented for food stations, instead of one large table at the back of the gallery. The tables will be placed at various locations in the gallery along with a beverage station to free up more space.

Monthly Show Chair - Lynn Ely: Lynn announced there will be no take-ins in December because of the "Small Images and More" show starting on November 17th. Also, there will be two take-ins in January, one on Jan. 5th and one on January 26th, because of the holiday schedule.

Karen Fidel for Carol Korfin - President: Karen read a letter from Laura Lowenstein about the development of the Pacific View School property and the City of Encinitas' new group, Encinitas Arts, Culture and Ecology Alliance. The SDAG group may get involved in this endeavor in the future.

Pam Waldman brought in copies of revised forms for the monthly show procedures, monthly show take-in, and cards and 2-D shrink wraps. Pam worked diligently on revising and redoing the forms. She asked the board members by email for any changes or revisions to the forms prior to the meeting. Some of the members volunteered to make changes at the board meeting.

Motion: A motion was made by Pam for the changes to the OTG Monthly Show Procedures, OTG Monthly Show Take In Sheet, and no changes to the form Cards and 2D Wraps Procedures. This motion was seconded by Susan Schulte. The board voted in favor to all of the changes.

A motion for the adjournment of the meeting was made by Karen Fidel and Linda Melvin seconding the motion. The board approved the motion.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:23 p.m.

Message from SDAG President

Well, I have lots of time to write my message this month. I have been sidelined with back problems for a while now and am having surgery right about when you get this issue of the Paint Rag. Should be back in the game by next month, but I have had plenty of time to think about what to write.

It is a good time to let you know how much I appreciate all the different tasks that you, our members do to keep our little group running smoothly. We have put together an organizational chart to track all the jobs that need to be done and which board chair they each report to. It turned out to be a lot more jobs than we realized were getting done and need to get done! And it is amazing how much our guild accomplishes each year. We think it will help us be more efficient and more accountable.

Our next reception is Oct 10th from 3-5pm. Featured artists are Yanina Cambareri and Joyce Nash. Come celebrate your fellow artists by attending in support of them.

The next big event is the Holiday Bazaar on Nov. 14th. Every person selling in the bazaar will be handling one or more tasks to make it run smoothly, but we can use a few members the day of the event, who are not in it. They'll handle such things as greeting the customers and directing them to the food donation collection area, explaining the silent auction, and collecting emails from the attendees for the raffle drawing.

If you can help, please contact me at president@sandieguitoartguild.org.

Have You Renewed Your Membership?

A Message from our Membership Chair

Thank you to all our members who have renewed their membership dues through August 31, 2016. To those that haven't yet paid, membership renewal was due by August 31, 2015. We hope you will renew and continue to be part of our wonderful guild and gallery. (If you joined the guild in June, July or August 2015, your membership is paid up to August 31, 2016, so you can disregard this notice.)

There is no increase in dues this year - $85 for adults. However, the family membership fee (members in SAME household) is now $125. Please send in your payment at your earliest convenience to ensure that you continue to receive all the benefits of the Guild, including emails, Paint Rags, etc. And it is still not too late to become a vendor in our upcoming holiday bazaar.

It is important to include the membership application form with your payment as it includes the membership agreement. If you have made payment without the form, could you please just send in the completed form. You can download it here, or stop by the gallery to pick up a form - they are in the front desk bottom right drawer, first folder.

Thank you so much!

Linda Melvin Videos on You Tube

Don't know if you've had a chance to see Linda Melvin's YouTube videos, but in my humble opinion, they're fantastic!!! Heard about them through the grapevine and had to check them out for myself. Have looked at nearly all of them and yes, took copious notes to make sure I get the right paints and paper when I try painting myself.

Go to youtube.com and search for Linda Melvin. You'll see her "Fluid Watercolor System" lessons, 9 of them so far, with more to come. As many of you know, I'm a photographer, not a painter, but these lessons look like so much fun you'll want to try them too!

Those who've taken Linda's watercolor classes in person know that with 30 years in the business, she knows what's she's talking about!!! She has a very easy manner of teaching and also takes the time to explain what she's doing and why which helps those of us who are clueless when it comes to painting.

Just thought I'd pass it on!

Scholarship Award Winners at the Off Track Gallery

Sunday, August 30, 2015, 3-5pm, SDAG put on a reception that featured two of our guild members: Marilyn Shayegan and Jennifer Richards, and 4 scholarship award winners.

$500 scholarship awards were presented to each of four MiraCosta (Oceanside) College students. Diane Adams, instructor at MiraCosta College, selected the four students who received the awards. The scholarship funds came from profits from the San Dieguito Art Guild's Annual Mother's Day Weekend Art, Garden and Studio tour.

A HUGE thank you to Aleksandra Owczarek for giving up her wall space for the month of August to accommodate the four students' artwork.

Membership Binders

New Business Card Binders

When visitors come into the Gallery, they often want to know more about an artist. Besides looking in the Bio Booklets, you can give them the artist's business card if there is a supply in the Business Card Binder -- which is located under the table that holds the E-Mail Book.

Each member may have one slot with FIVE business cards; the plastic slots aren't that sturdy and too many cards will break them. When you are in the Gallery, just check and see if you need to refill your supply. If you have THICK cards or OVERSIZE cards, put them in my folder in the Office and I will make a place for them.

The BIO BINDER is waiting for members' bios.

Look under the table that the shrink wrap baskets are on.

Customers often ask for more information about an artist whose work they have been admiring.

So put YOUR bio in the binder!!

Here's the format: They are in alphabetical order. Everyone gets two pages. Check out Lynn Ely's for the best format. When you open the binder, you see her bio has one page on the left with pictures and one page on the right with her write-up. Just put down what you want people to know about you and your artwork. No problem if your two pages are on the front and back of ONE sheet. You'll notice that I put in blank white paper to separate those (so the back of one artist's bio is not showing with the front of another artist).
