NEW BEGINNINGS

When I was younger, (employed and raising a family), my life was all about setting goals and making lists, especially around this time of year. It was the only way I could see, in a definitive way, that I was making progress in the important areas of my life. My motto was Plan Your Work, Work Your Plan, which served me well for years and years. But today, since I consider myself 'retired', I've tried to lower my self-expectation a bit. There's no need to be super woman any longer. Been there, done that!

Although my list making continues, especially for my volunteer duties, my goal setting has more to do with what will bring me joy. Now, my priorities include doing what I need to do to stay fit and healthy, being attentive to my husband, family, and friends while spending more time pursuing what I love most - surrounding myself with art. That means devoting more time in my studio creating and being actively engaged with fellow artists, especially through my Guild activities. Here are some suggestions for your new year:

Show Up - Attend the All Member Meeting, January 20th at the Encinitas Community Center. You'll hear about how the Guild and the Gallery are doing financially but more importantly (I think) is it gives us all a chance to visit with each other while having a bit of fun! If you don't want to wear a hat to our Mad Hatter Tea & Luncheon, then you can create one on the spot. Karen Fidel, our Membership Chair, is bringing lots of doo-dads for simple-to-do hat making.

Attend the next Featured Artist reception on Saturday, February 10th from 4pm- 7pm. Let us know if you want to BE a featured artist (asap) or just show up and enjoy the event. Marissa Wright and her Hospitality Team always have lots of sumptuous hors d'oeuvres and cold beverages available.

Make/display more art - Participate in the next Monthly Show - Because we didn't have a December take in due to the holidays, the next take in will be on Tuesday, January 2nd , 3:30pm - 6:00pm. The theme "Something New" offers many interpretations so it'll be interesting to see what everyone brings in.

Participate in our annual Fundraiser, The Mother's Day Art, Garden & Studio Tour, set for May 12th & 13th , as an exhibitor, docent, or committee helper. There's a lot to do and as you know, many hands make light work.

And there's more! We've got Golden Paints workshops in January and February, monthly Show & Tell events, plus an opportunity to go to art camp with Lisa Curry, Ann Gallagher and me this summer. Just keep an eye on the e-blasts we send and especially the calendar section of our website (www.offtrackgallery.com) for regular updates. Remember, as a guild of artists we are committed to serving our members and our community in the best ways possible. If you have any comments or suggestions, feel free to contact me. I'm here to help.

Cheers and Happy New Year,
Lin Holzinger

from 9 to 5 each day

Location: On highway 101 - exact location to be announced

SDAG will have a double booth at the Street Faire. This has not

The booths will be an outreach to the public to inform them about the Gallery and Guild as well as possible prizes or give-aways, or children's art activity.

The booth will need to be torn down Saturday night by 5:30 and put back up again on Sunday morning by 8am.
The Guild will provide canopy, tables, and table covers.

If you have an idea for a children's activity, would like to help staff the booth, set up, tear down, etc, please contact Grace at pr@sandieguitoartguild.com

SDAG Now has an Instagram Account!

The Gallery has set up an Instagram account! Instagram is another social media site and another way to share your life, your work, your passions through a series of pictures.

To make our Gallery page a success which means bringing people into the Gallery to buy our work, I need your pictures. Ideally pictures need to be posted daily, twice a day would be best, which means I need a lot of pictures. Pictures of work hung on a wall or sitting in case are ok, but pictures of the work in your studio, work in progress shots, studio pictures, pictures of you in your booth at a show, pictures of classes / workshops, plein air painting, etc. are the best. Short videos (under 30 seconds) can be posted as well, and people love to watch short videos. Videos of you working, if you do 3D work, can be rotated in your hand. Gallery events, etc., would be great too. The only caveat, the pictures and videos need to be good, that means no blurry dark pictures or videos.

This is a group project, if you have a smartphone, start taking those great pictures / videos and let's create a fantastic Instagram feed together. Please send your pictures/videos to me at

kk\_hung@yahoo.com or text to me at 760.420.8894

If you're already an Instagram user, please follow the OffTrackGallery page and use OffTrackGallery and SanDieguitoArtGuild hashtags: #OffTrackGallery and #SanDieguitoArtGuilDOffTrackGallery.

Message from our President: Lin Holzinger

State of the Guild

If you missed our All Member meeting, you missed some yummy food (thanks to Judy Salinsky and Marissa Wright) and a great time. Almost everyone wore a hat and if they didn't bring one we had supplies on hand for them to custom make their own. Just looking around it was easy to tell that this was a room full of artists with creativity to spare.

Linda Melemed, our Treasurer, gave the financial report for fiscal 2016 - 2017. The good news is that the Gallery paid out nearly $87,000 to our participating artists! Our ongoing challenge is that the gallery does not produce enough revenue to cover its expenses, so we continue to be dependent upon ticket sales from our Mother's Day Weekend fundraiser in order to keep the gallery open.

That brings me to my next topic - the 24th Annual Mother's Day Art, Garden & Studio Tour. We need help to assure success!!! At this point in time, we have our artists (36 have signed up) and we're nearly finished selecting the featured houses, so now our biggest need is to have enough Greeters - those folks who sit at the entry way of each house to welcome visitors or to sell tickets. It's a 3½ - 4 hour (morning or afternoon) volunteer job on either Saturday or Sunday that is really a lot of fun. You meet so many happy people who are enjoying the day and this year's collection of gardens. And best of all...you receive 2 complimentary tickets so you can spend the rest of the weekend visiting the featured homes. Diann Abadie has agreed once again to coordinate and schedule the Greeters (thank you, Diann!) - so if you're able to help, please sign up ASAP by emailing her at: colordesign@aol.com.

Other opportunities coming up in February include a FREE Golden Acrylics workshop with new member (a botanical illustrator) and snowbird from Montana, Nancy Seiler. Keep an eye out for the e-mail blast that will allow you to register. It's first come, first served and space is limited, so don't delay if it interests you.

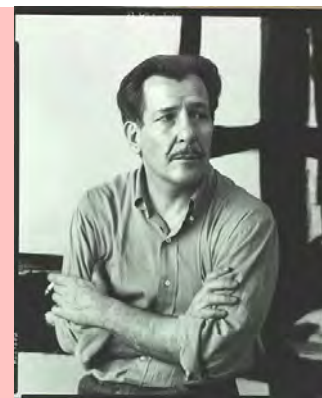

Also, check out Jeff Brosbe's fabulous photographic images from his "Man and Nature in the 21st Century" series all month at the Gallery AND at his Featured Artist reception scheduled for Saturday, February 10th from 4pm - 7pm.

Remember, as a guild of artists we are committed to serving our members and our community in the best ways possible. If you have any comments or suggestions, feel free to contact me. I'm here to help.

Cheers!

Lin Holzinger

The booths will be an outreach to the public to inform them about the Gallery and Guild as well as possible prizes or give-aways, or children's art activity.

The booth will need to be torn down Saturday night by 5:30 and put back up again on Sunday morning by 8am. The Guild will provide canopy, tables, and table covers.

SDAG Now has an Instagram Account!

The Gallery has set up an Instagram account! Instagram is another social media site and another way to share your life, your work, your passions through a series of pictures.

To make our Gallery page a success which means bringing people into the Gallery to buy our work, I need your pictures. Ideally pictures need to be posted daily, twice a day would be best, which means I need a lot of pictures. Pictures of work hung on a wall or sitting in case are ok, but pictures of the work in your studio, work in progress shots, studio pictures, pictures of you in your booth at a show, pictures of classes / workshops, plein air painting, etc. are the best. Short videos (under 30 seconds) can be posted as well, and people love to watch short videos. Videos of you working, if you do 3D work, can be rotated in your hand. Gallery events, etc., would be great too. The only caveat, the pictures and videos need to be good, that means no blurry dark pictures or videos.

This is a group project, if you have a smartphone, start taking those great pictures / videos and let's create a fantastic Instagram feed together. Please send your pictures/videos to me at

Off Track Gallery to host artist reception on Feb. 10

The public is invited to a reception at the Off Track Gallery, 937 South Coast Highway 101, Suite C-103, featuring the limited edition photography of Jeffrey R. Brosbe on Feb. 10 from 4 to 7 p.m.

Brosbe says, "Visually, my work is built around shape, light and shadow. The essence of my images, however, are moments in time which, in their contemplation, communicate my personal response to the world which is sometimes a wry, ironic smile, at others awestruck, and sometimes in a realm between these poles. I strive to have my images succeed both on their surface and after deeper consideration. I have written that the creation of an image is the same as the creation of a Haiku: It should be whole and meaningful in itself while providing greater insight when pondered further."

Refreshments will be served at the reception. All artwork in the gallery will be 10 percent off the entire day from 10 a.m. to closing. This event is free and open to the public.

The Off Track Gallery is owned and operated by the San Dieguito Art Guild, a nonprofit, 501(c)3 organization made up of over 200 talented local artists.

Membership Chair – no report (absent)

Wall Chair report by Janet Scura: Joyce Ford is now on wall, Yanina Cambereri is off the wall. Joyce Nash will send that report to Jeffrey Brosbe.

All wall artists paid this rotation, 1 or 2 were not in compliance and were sent emails to that effect.

Floor Chair report: Linda Melvin reported that the demos outside the gallery are going well and that the Golden demo at her home went well also.

Monthly Show report: Lynn Ely reported 40 participants for 70 pieces garnered $1,062 for the February Monthly Show

Publicity Report: Grace Swanson reported that Cheryl DeLain was the sole Featured Artist for the April 14th reception at the Off Track Gallery.

Webmaster report: Jon Lovegren reported that as per request from last board meeting the menu items on the SDAG website are now larger on the Home Page. Carol Korfin suggested change to color to make them more readable.

The password to the Member section of the website is due to be changed (as it is each year this time) and the message will be sent out to membership via email.

Suggestion made (again) that the password required for the Staffing Calendar be disabled. It was noted that this will need to be changed in the Trainer's Manual that is now underway.

Jon reported that PDFs in the History section no longer open automatically, but must be downloaded to be read.

Calendar Chair: no report

Jobs Chair report: Jeffrey Brosbe reminds everyone to send him any changes in jobs by members

Dolores Renner (Featured Artist Coordinator) report:

There is difficulty in getting featured artists. Suggestion that price may be too high ($60). There were past problems with artist placements at receptions – probably as a result of direction not going through Dolores. The following items were discussed:

- Non wall/floor renters allowed to be featured artists after being juried in for that event
- Reduce price to $30 or $35 per artist for participation
- Question whether artist was getting $60 in benefit
- See who will be located toward the front of the gallery and approach them to be featured artist
- Total costs of reception
- Benefit to Guild vs. benefit to artist
- Suggestion made to use microphone at reception to introduce featured artist and let them make a statement if they wish
- For receptions at the holiday time – the tree will be moved to make more room
- Possible tray service vs. setting up table
- Music at receptions
- Survey will be sent to past featured artists and to membership in general. Janet Scura to do.

- Receptions during summer months of April, June, August: artists can set up outside to draw in more customers
- Suggest festive lights – Linda Melvin to look into this
- Suggest move shrink wrap bins outside during summer months

Gallery Manager report: See attached “FEBRUARY GCM MINUTES 2018” document

Lin Holzinger passed out brochures for Art Groove and reminded us that SDAG receives $75 for every participant that we send their way.

Mother’s Day committee meeting will be set for the next week. Lin Holzinger, chair, will send out a Doodle.

Practice, Practice, Practice

You all remember the old jokey-question; "Pardon me, can you tell me how to get to Carnegie Hall?" Reply: Practice, Practice, Practice!

For me, "practicing" and the willingness to do so has been the bane of my life ever since I started taking piano lessons as an 8 year old. I loved making music but hated having to practice 60 minutes (exactly) a day, which was enforced by my wicked stepmother. Oh, don't feel too badly for us. We eventually became great friends once I was old enough to understand her motives (all good).

But the ability to practice, even what I love, continues to challenge me. I often blame lack of time, or self-inflicted distractions, or (sorry, Bob!) my husband. But the real reason is that on most days, I just don't add it to my schedule. And although Creativity and Inspiration are not things most of us can call up on demand, making the space for them to take hold - well, that does require time - and scheduling. So for me, even though it's March, I've made a new resolution to keep my afternoons open and dedicate that time for working at my bench.

You know, it just occurred to me that maybe this is only my issue. After all, we have dozens of prolific artists who exhibit regularly at the gallery and there are more than 35 artists participating in our upcoming Mother's Day Weekend fundraiser. I bet that most of them have scheduled enough time between now and May 12th to prepare, create and organize.

So how about you? I'd be interested in hearing about how you manage your time as a practicing artist. Maybe there's something I can pass on in an upcoming newsletter.

Calling All Greeters: We're looking for greeters for the Mother's Day Weekend Art, Garden & Studio Tour, set for May 12th & 13th. In appreciation for your willingness to attend a one-hour training session the week before the event and working one (4-hour) shift at one of our Host Homes, you'll receive two complimentary tickets to the event. Interested? Please email Diann Abadie, at colordesign@aol.com to schedule yourself or to get more information.

Remember, as a guild of artists we are committed to serving our members and our community in the best ways possible. If you have any comments or suggestions, feel free to contact me. I'm here to help.

Cheers!
Lin Holzinger

Looking Forward to the Monthly Show

APRIL MONTHLY SHOW TAKE-IN
Theme: Messages
Judge: Joe Oakes
Take-In: Tuesday, March 27
Time - 3:30 - 6 p.m.

March Monthly Show

Judge: Cathy Carey

Cathy Carey:
I am an Escondido, CA artist. I call my style of painting Contemporary Fauve Expressionism, which basically means I like to use color to express my emotions. I combine expressive and impressionist color and brush strokes to scenes of the natural world. Often my paintings are of a house, or houses, and trails through a landscape. These represent the soul, individual, or society, and the trails are the journeys of life, the path taken. My paintings take place in an alternate reality. I change perspective, heighten color, dramatize certain aspects, and minimize other details.

Message from our President: Lin Holzinger

Spring Has Sprung

I'm always excited to greet spring. I love the way the wisteria and jasmine blooms sweeten the air, daily the temperatures begin to rise and our days get longer. My world seems reinvented somehow - it feels fresh and new and full of possibilities.

You know, one of the responsibilities of the guild board is to keep things fresh for its members and customers. Even with the ups and downs of politics and the economy, changes in location, and leadership turnover, we continue to thrive even after 53 years. How? By reinventing ourselves through recruiting new leaders for committees and the board.

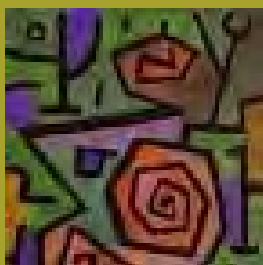

They say there are three types of folks; those who make things happen, those who watch what happens and those who wonder what happened. Our board members usually come from the first group. They're typically the folks who suggest new ideas and are willing to do the work to make things happen.

One relative newcomer, PJ Puterbaugh, is someone I'd like to acknowledge this month. She joined the guild in 2015 and was voted in as board secretary two years later and has performed really well in that position. But how she has really excelled was by taking on the task of hunting for host homes for this year's Mother's Day fundraiser. It's a huge job but she and her team were able to muster a fresh collection of featured homes that are sure to delight our featured artists as well as our guests. Thank you, PJ!

In anticipation of summertime elections, we've begun to assemble the annual nominating committee. I want to encourage everyone to consider stepping up to take part or even consider running for the 2018 - 2019 board. It's a terrific way to get to know other members, practice or learn a new task, and to be of service to your guild.

And speaking of service - we're calling all Greeters: We're still looking for greeters for the Mother's Day Weekend Art, Garden & Studio Tour, set for May 12th & 13th. In appreciation for your willingness to attend a one-hour training session the week before the event and working one (4-hour) shift at one of our Host Homes, you'll receive two complimentary tickets to the event. Interested? Please email Diann Abadie right away, at colordesign@aol.com to schedule yourself or to get more information.

Cheers!

April Monthly Show

Judge: Joe Oaks

Joe is a life-long artist striving to create art that evokes an emotional response. His use of color, light, and shadow are exaggerated to capture the imagination. Although his work is representational, for this artist it's more about the atmosphere, feeling, and emotion of a painting. Joe loves to capture the landscape, and his most recent work captures the beauty and romance of Spanish-style architecture. In addition to a Bachelor of Fine Art degree from California State University Fullerton, Joe credits many art books, magazines, websites and fellow artists with helping his career along. He believes his greatest influence and source of knowledge has been teaching painting classes and workshops for the past six years. Teaching others has been the best way to learn the most about himself and art. "My hope is that through my paintings we find a kindred appreciation of a glimpse of nature."

SDAG Now has an Instagram Account!

The Gallery has set up an Instagram account! Instagram is another social media site and another way to share your life, your work, your passions through a series of pictures.

To make our Gallery page a success which means bringing people into the Gallery to buy our work, I need your pictures. Ideally pictures need to be posted daily, twice a day would be best, which means I need a lot of pictures. Pictures of work hung on a wall or sitting in case are ok, but pictures of the work in your studio, work in progress shots, studio pictures, pictures of you in your booth at a show, pictures of classes / workshops, plein air painting, etc. are the best. Short videos (under 30 seconds) can be posted as well, and people love to watch short videos. Videos of you working, if you do 3D work, can be rotated in your hand. Gallery events, etc., would be great too. The only caveat, the pictures and videos need to be good, that means no blurry dark pictures or videos.

This is a group project, if you have a smartphone, start taking those great pictures / videos and let's create a fantastic Instagram feed together. Please send your pictures/videos to me at

Former Del Mar couple 'paddle their own canoe' at La Costa Glen

Two years ago, world travelers Bea and Tom Roberts made one of the most important journeys of their life: leaving their longtime home in Del Mar and moving to the La Costa Glen retirement community in Carlsbad.

As former real estate appraisers of large tracts of land, the Roberts gravitated to La Costa Glen's 280-acre site near the Batiquitos Lagoon. They knew that 180 acres of the property would be permanently preserved, a rarity in 21st century Southern California.

"We were familiar with the site when La Costa Glen was just a dream," Bea says. "This community is absolutely unique. It has a quiet, relaxed ambiance with buildings spread over a large campus – something you just don't find anymore."

Veteran travelers, the Roberts selected a detached villa with an attached garage to showcase their paintings, sculptures and rare textiles acquired during trips to China, Iran, Syria, Libya and other exotic locales. The home also provides plenty of space for their backyard sculpture garden.

"Moving to La Costa Glen removed the tedium of homeownership," Tom says. "We loved our home in Del Mar, but don't miss the headaches that come with maintaining a house. At La Costa Glen, all the housecleaning, re-roofing, painting, landscape maintenance and other mundane chores are handled by the staff. We spend our time on the things we enjoy."

Bea grew up around the restaurant business and still considers herself a "foodie." Tasty food with a lot of variety was a top priority when she and Tom began researching retirement communities.

"Coming from a culinary background, I can be tough to please," she says. "But the food and beverage operation at La Costa Glen is absolutely amazing. The chefs put a lot of emphasis on balanced, healthy food. We also like to eat at home and order items to go from the La Costa Glen kitchen. It really is the best of both worlds."

Tom adds that one of the biggest benefits of living at La Costa Glen is the opportunity to live among people your own age.

"Even as active as we are, Bea and I still felt somewhat isolated within the general population," he says. "Older adults want to live near people they can relate to and who are interested in the same things they are. As you get older your social circle narrows if you stay in your own home. It's often hard to meet new people. Here, you live in a community with lots of opportunity to make new friends."

A major reason why the Roberts moved to La Costa Glen with its continuing care program stemmed from a common fear for many people – leaving decisions about their long-term health care to their children.

"Tom and I are independent-minded people with lots of plans for the future," Bea says. "But if the time comes, we don't want to burden our children with those decisions."

"In fact, Tom and I try not to depend on them for anything because they have their own lives to lead. We plan to paddle our own canoe for as long as possible."

For more information on the La Costa Glen lifestyle, call 800-852-4384 or visit www.lacostaglen.com.

Encinitas arts program assistant shows own work

BY BRITTANY WOOLSEY

An Encinitas arts department staffer is revealing her own talents in a show now on display.

Cheryl Ehlers, the city's arts program assistant who helps put on art shows throughout Encinitas, presents "Out of Bounds" at the Cardiff-by-the-Sea Library through June 30.

The 13 detailed, acrylic pieces reflect Ehlers' unique style using abstract and contemporary techniques. She notes that as viewers walk about the library, they should not be able to immediately identify that all the pieces were done by the same artist, as each piece is distinct from one another.

Ehlers recently gave a tour of her show to the Encinitas Advocate and spoke about what inspires her and her history as an artist.

What was your inspiration behind 'Out of Bounds'?

I named it 'Out of Bounds' because it is everything that I do out of the bounds. I'm multi-genre, so this particular art that's in here is done for a complete abstract show that I do twice a year for the Jazzercise Corp. I curate their art for them, and it's all abstract and eclectic art. ... I just thought since it's bright and it's very vibrant, it brings a great energy to a library. ... The art is just what's in my head at the time or an emotion or a thought. I just plot it on the canvas. It really depicts reflections of a day or moment in my life.

What other styles do you use in your art?

I do contemporary art, as well as mixed media and abstract art. I can do traditional but I don't find a lot of fun in it. I don't like to paint from a photograph. I like to paint what's in my head.

Are there any subject matters that you gravitate toward in your art?

I love music. I'm not a music player but I'm around it all the time on a weekly basis. I also enjoy abstract art. It just flows with where you're at. It's just enough to pique your curiosity. ...

Smokin Ivory 2 by Cheryl Ehlers

COURTESY PHOTOS

I like to paint for feeling and emotion, and that's why I don't really have a particular subject. I love the tropics, so I would [lean] toward probably native types of art, which you're probably not going to see if you look on my website, but I enjoy it.

What paints do you tend to use?

I have been painting watercolors or acrylics for about 40 years. I've tried oil twice, and I think I'm afraid of it. I don't know why. I like things to be done quickly, and oil takes too long to dry. I even use heaters on my acrylic paints because they don't dry fast enough for me.

You work with the city and have helped put on other people's art shows for five years. What's it like for you now to be in the spotlight at a city venue?

It's always very strange for me because I always put the other person ahead of me. I've always been one that wants to reach out for emerging artists and to help them learn how to market themselves. I have found some of the most talented individuals that just have no self-worth and don't know how talented they are. ... I never expose myself. They usually end up finding out themselves.

Roy Soravia 1904-2004 Painter dedicated to the Op Art Movement of the 1950's and 60's

Much of Soravia's work has been recognized by experts to be reminiscent of the paintings of highly regarded Victory Vasarely, Bridget Riley and Yaacov Agam.

He studied at the Art Institute of Chicago and at the University of Chicago.

His belief that the use of line, color and form is more important than the representation of a given subject.

His paintings are optical art — a study of shapes and color.

The paintings are either acrylic or casein paint. In some paintings, metallic - gold and silver are used.

Soravia's painstaking methods and great attention to color variations yielded work that are not only pleasing to behold but have the magical quality of changing before the viewer's eye.

Soravia's paintings have been exhibited in Chicago, Omaha, Davenport Museum, and in California at the Los Angeles County Museum, the San Diego Museum of Fine Arts, the La Jolla Museum of Contemporary Art, La Jolla Atheneum Gallery at the University of California at San Diego and the Coronado School of Fine Arts.

Message from our President: Lin Holzinger

It is all about Mother's Day...

As the Chair of this year's 24 th Annual Mother's Day Art, Garden & Studio Tour, my thoughts are of little else these days. And it's okay because I know I have plenty of company. Out of 200+ members, about 1/2 are knee-deep in prepping to sell their art at this two day event or volunteering their time with some aspect of this two-day event, or volunteering their time with some aspect of making it a success, or planning to buy tickets to attend with family and friends. It all counts! Just as a reminder - this event helps us pay for operating Off Track Gallery with usually some money left over to contribute to visual arts education.

And by the way...we're still looking for Greeters & helpers at the Gallery during Mother's Day Weekend (May 12th & 13th).

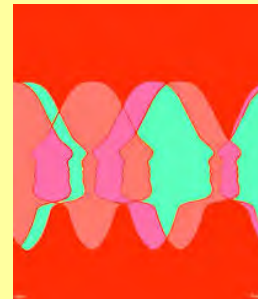

In appreciation for your willingness to attend a one-hour training session the week before the event and working one (4-hour) shift at one of our Host Homes, you'll receive two complimentary tickets to the event. Interested? Please email Diann Abadie right away, at colordesign@aol.com to schedule yourself or for more information.

This month I would like to send kudos out to Dolores Renner, one of our floor renters and a wonderful jewelry maker. It was gratifying to see how she embraced managing the Featured Artist program. It wasn't too long after she took charge that she pitched some changes to the Board. Her idea was to invite all members, not just gallery renters, to become Featured Artists. And, at the same time, make the program more affordable by lowering the cost to the artist. The Board voted to support her ideas for change and I think we're better for it. After all, we exist to support our artist/members and making this program more affordable has the potential to help any member not just our renters.

AND- we're always looking for folks who can help keep the Guild vital and current. That means "new talent" for the 2018 - 2019 board. Please consider running for office for the new term that begins September 1. There are plenty of benefits, including being part of a group of creative people who are committed to insuring that SDAG will continue to exist to serve its community. As I've said before, it's a terrific way to get to know other members, practice or learn a new task, and to be of service to your Guild. Please consider joining the Board. Feel free to call me directly to discuss this wonderful opportunity. Remember, as a guild of artists we are committed to serving our members and our community in the best ways possible. If you have any comments or suggestions, feel free to contact me. I'm here to help.

Cheers!
Lin Holzinger

Message from our President: Lin Holzing

WHEW! IT DID TAKE A VILLAGE!

I'm pleased to report that our 24th Annual Mother's Day Art, Garden & Studio Tour was a success! The weather just barely cooperated but folks came out in droves to visit this year's selection of homes and to see our featured artists. There were 33 artists at 8 locations and more than 75 volunteer greeters. The MDT (Mother's Day Tour) committee had more than two dozen dedicated workers who handled a wide variety of duties...they went on the hunt for interesting new locations, designed and wrote copy for all the promotional materials, managed all the advertising and social media, made sure our website was current and up to day, figured out driving directions, put up posters and distributed flyers, pasted labels onto brochures, helped train our greeters, managed street signage, staffed the gallery, took photos during the event, PLUS 8 very courageous artists took on the responsibility of being an "Artist in Charge" at each home.

Can I just say...Whew?!?

We're also thrilled to have exceeded our financial goal, which now allows us to give cash scholarships to three talented Mira Costa art students (who will be our Featured Artists at the August 11th reception - please join us!) and once again, provide a donation to support the arts advocacy group, Encinitas Friends of the Arts at that same event. If you missed the Mother's Day Tour, here's a short video of that weekend

Everyone ok on book sale and put in place this week or early next week. Some "craft" things need a vertical area, possible where bins are. This is a re look at items that were grandfathered in previously, ie utilitarian, handmade bookmarks, key rings or small works that sell very well at the MDtour. These pieces still will have to be juried in. Question, what percentages of sales come from various types of displays? Artists need to manage their displays/assortments of items to make sure they are in good shape and check their inventory.

Discussion ensued re name of Annual Fundraising Chair or Fundraising Event Chair and take out Annual.

Artists' reception at Off Track Gallery to feature MiraCosta art students

The public is invited to an artists' reception at the Off Track Gallery featuring a cash award ceremony to Encinitas Friends of the Arts and also to three promising MiraCosta College students — Rachel Greenstein, Priscilla Rivera, and Jonathan Broberg — on Aug. 11 from 4 to 7 p.m.

Naimeh Tanha will be accepting the award for the Encinitas Friends of the Arts, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, established by local residents and a board of dedicated volunteers to support a vibrant arts community. The mission of Encinitas Friends of the Arts is to partner with the City of Encinitas by fundraising and advocating for the cultural arts in Encinitas and a city-owned Arts Center.

Rachel Greenstein excels in both watercolors and oils. She has won awards for her watercolors in the MiraCosta's juried student show in the past two years. She also won first place for her oil painting in this year's show. She is planning to attend UCLA. She exhibited her oils in Duoable Take in the Kruglak Gallery last fall in a special exhibit featuring advanced painters.

Priscilla Rivera has had a talent for portraits and figurative subjects since she was in high school and garnered many awards for her art in The COAL Shows. She has continued to impress her professors with this ability. She won first place this spring for her three-part portrait series titled "Triptych of Andy" in MiraCosta's annual juried student show. In addition, she won first in the life drawing category.

Jonathan Broberg works in a variety of media and is an outstanding draftsman. His work is whimsical and well executed. He has won numerous awards in MiraCosta's juried student exhibit in the last two years, including second place wins for watercolor, oil, colored pencil and a pastel. He was a featured artist in the MCC Bluegate Gallery. He is planning to attend the Laguna Beach School of Art and Design.

Refreshments will be served at the reception. All artwork in the gallery will be 10 percent off the entire day from 10 a.m. to closing. This event is free and open to the public.

The Off Track Gallery, 937 South Coast Highway 101 in Encinitas, is owned and operated by the San Dieguito Art Guild, a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organization made up of over 200 talented local artists.

Message from our President: Lin Holzinger

President's Message July 2018

Guild Artists Go Front & Center

I love going to the Fair but nowadays I don't have kids to entertain and I definitely do not indulge in fair food (although I ask you, who would eat deep-fry butter on a stick?). For me, the attraction is the Fair's Fine Art competition. It's a great way to see creativity on display by local artists, which is a passion of mine.

This year's array was as good as ever and I was so pleased to see such a strong representation from Guild members, many who won ribbons in assorted categories. This is not a comprehensive list (I'm sure I missed someone - sorry!) but kudos go to Tish Wynne, Lisa Curry, Bruce Swart, Toni Williams, Jill Treadwell Svendsen, Artie Mattson, Nora Dewey, and Joan Grine for submitting their art.

BTW - Did you know that SDAG gives an award each year? Our committee selected a stained glass artist, Penny Kachuck, for her lovely piece called Penny's Garden.

On a similar note, San Diego Botanic Garden (previously known as Quail Gardens in Encinitas) held a reception this past week for their Sculpture in the Garden program. Each year, several artists are selected to display their sculpted pieces in this glorious 37-acre park. Once again, Bobbi Hirschhoff, long time member and MDT home host, had a kinetic piece selected. Congrats, Bobbi!

It's nearly time for a changing of the guard at SDAG. Our fiscal year begins September 1, so it's time to vote for an incoming Board of Directors. You should have already received your email ballot for the 2018 -2019 team. Please take the time to mark and return your ballot. This is every member's opportunity to voice their opinion about who makes decisions for our guild. Please voice yours.

Remember, as a guild of artists we are committed to serving our members and our community in the best ways possible. If you have any comments or suggestions, feel free to contact me. I'm here to help.

Cheers,

Lin Holzinger

SDAG August 2018 Gallery Committee Meeting Minutes

Linda Melvin's House

August 22 , 2018 @ 1-3:30pm

Members Present: Judianne Shannon, Janet Scura, Linda Melvin, Lynn Ely,, Carol Korfin, Lily Pourat

Members Absent: Sandy Heath, Ellen Cramer, Joyce Nash,

Calendar Chair - Carol Korfin

Carol asked Cheryl DeLain, a member and retired lawyer, for input regarding our bylaws and new forms, especially our new NoShow Policy and forms. She reported feedback from her regarding review of SDAG/OTG Membership Contract, Wall and Floor Rental Contract and policies and forms. Cheryl spoke with others and researched a lot of sources. At present, without spending a lot of money Cheryl felt that what we have in place is okay, but when the membership contract is next reviewed and edited we should consider putting additional wording in for non-compliance issues and get advice as to whether all meet Ca codes. Committee felt that SDAG Membership does not guarantee a rental space in the gallery but is a privilege that comes by meeting requirements and responsibilities.

2. Gallery has experienced a "shoplifter" in our store and other stores in the complex. A picture of the individual will be at the front desk for all to see and if he does come in you can ask him to leave since he is not welcome. If you follow him around the store, he does leave on his own. The police have been notified and request that a report be made in regards to items taken. Some renters do not feel comfortable making out a police report but Judianne recommends that one be made for each occurrence so that the police can follow up. Carol will put out an eblast to staffers regarding this issue.

3. Judianne reviewed an e-mail that she had received from Pam Waldman regarding multiple safety issues. Judianne will remind all gallery staffers to make sure the back door is locked and deadbolted and that the front door deadbolt is also locked. There have been issues where both have not been locked.

4. Judianne will also post at the front desk information on how to get a hold of the maintenance man on duty during daytime hours.

5. Judianne presented the new OTG Staff Training Guide just completed by Pam and also wanted everyone to review in the guidebook the section on Medical 'Byes' page 28. The Committee Members took the time to review and then approved as is. Judianne explained the process for getting the new training book out to staff.

Wall Chair - Janet Scura (Joyce Nash absent)

1. There is one new Renter coming on with the next rotation. His name is David Rickert and his media is oil and acrylic. He has recently moved from Minnesota and is a landscape painter. He is taking a 1/2 wall but would like a full wall when possible.

2. Janet said that the clear acrylic biography and business card holders are available for sale now. Joyce has volunteered to handle the money. Card holder is priced at $2.50 and 8.5x11" bio holder is $6.50 She recommends that we now make these our standard holders and request those artists using non-clear acrylic to purchase. Both items have a hold on the back so that they can be secured to the wall better than what we have at present.

Floor Chair - Linda Melvin

1. This is Linda's last gallery meeting as Floor Chair and will now hand over all duties to Lily Pourat. They will meet shortly to go over Floor Chair duties and issues.

2. Janet asked if the last Floor Rotation went better with her making sure that Wall Rotation items were put out of the way. Linda said it was very helpful and asks that the Floor artist do the same for Thursday evenings wall rotation.

Monthly Show - Lynn Ely

1. Diann Abadie is now collecting information on all monthly show participants and forwarding on to Judianne and Lily for Jurying information.

Jurying-in Coordinator - Lily Pourat

1. Judianne discussed that the last 'Jurying-in' meeting went fairly well for the first time a new process was introduced
2. Lily has suggested that when she asks for members interested in being juried in she will send a Rental Contract as well as the information she is now sending. She will request that the artists read the contract before committing to being juried in and if they understand and accept the contract terms she will request them to bring a complete copy of the contract with them at the time of submission. This will help her and the committee.
3. Janet said that she has received multiple judging criteria and recommends that we have overall categories for judging and more specific categories for each medium
4. Carol requested that a category: Workmanship for jewelry be added to the scoring forms. Janet will add
5. Janet has also revised the artist jurying scorecard per Lily's request to be 1/2 page each to save paper. Janet has done this and Lily reviewed. Janet will sent Lily electronic copies of both scoring sheets and the Wall/Floro Rental Contract for her use at each jurying.

Gallery Manager - Judianne Shannon

1. Day, time and place for next year Gallery Committee Meeting were voted on by the committee. Meetings will be set for Thursdays @10:30 am at the US Bank, Ralph Shopping Center, on El Camino Real in Encinitas.
2. Judianne discussed the moving of the front desk slightly to accommodate the new shelves for the bookshelf stand.
3. Judianne brought guidelines for Gallery Committee discussion regarding the types of books that artists already have submitted to her for jurying in. Guidelines; Books must be written or illustrated by artist, Table Books of art or photography need to have, at least, an in-depth forward or introduction; especially if there is no information or title with images. The Art Book must be more than just copies of artist's work within a book, it should say something about the subject matter, artist, etc , Books can be hard or soft covers Books can be published or self published by the artist but the quality of the book must be of high standard. An artist's bio would be a good addition. Pricing should be added by the artist and make sure there is proper identification for the staff when selling.

SDAG September 2018 Gallery Committee Meeting Minutes
US Bank @ El Camino Real
September 20, 2018 @ 10:30 am

Members Present: Judianne Shannon, Janet Scura, Lynn Ely., Carol Korfin, Lily Pourat, Joyce Nash

Members Absent: Sandy Heath, Ellen Cramer

Calendar Chair - Carol Korfin

Due to increasing number of staffing no shows over the last few months, Carol sent out a notice to all staffers reminding them that it is THEIR RESPONSIBILITY to write their staffing dates in their own calendars correctly and that they should check the notice that comes after signing up, the 2 day reminder notice and the day before phone call, the latter two being COURTESY calls.

Wall Chair - Janet Scura & Joyce Nash

1. Joyce has notified wall renters who have not paid their annual membership dues that they must submit their payment before they will be allowed to hang their work during rotation
2. Joyce says that she will be taking the money for wall rentals as well as any purchases of the new clear acrylic business card and 8.5" x 10" bio holders and will submit them together to Linda Melemed
3. Janet suggested that we try to encourage those wall renters that at present are using non clear acrylic holders to change to the new holders and that we should make the clear holders a standard moving forward.

Floor Chair - Lily Pourat

1. Lily says that she has been working with Linda Melvin to get acquainted with her new position as Floor Chair
2. She said that she has been calling those floor renters who have not paid their annual membership dues to tell them that they are required to pay prior to continuing to display their work.
3. Judianne said that the Chairs should take into account that there may be certain situations when a renter can not pay their dues prior to rotation. Arrangements could be made to have the payment made as soon as possible in this case.
4. Joyce said that she is working on the September Rotation map for the floor and will have it to Lily as soon as possible.
5. Lily made a suggestion that when the sculpture cube is not being used by a 3D artist that a coordinated display of artists work could be placed there. Judianne said that at present she has been placing some of the new books for sale there for viewing.
6. Judianne has been working with Diann Abadie on the new process and report for logging Monthly Show participants. This report will help Lily with the artist jurying qualification for being in 3 monthly shows prior to being juried in for wall or floor rental. Diann has been sending the monthly report to Judianne for distribution.

Jurying-in Coordinator - Lily Pourat

1. Judianne and Lily are finalizing the Jury Team Members. Being a Jury Team Member will qualify as the artist job for the gallery.
2. The Committee agreed that there should be other artist members besides BOD and Wall and Floor Chairs to Jury-in artists. Lily said that as Jurying Coordinator she would not be a juror unless absolutely necessary.
3. Jurying typically occurs approximately every other month unless there is not a sufficient number of artist to jury. The Committee agreed that the Monday of the second week of the month would be set for the Jurying Committee Meetings. Lily said that the previous 9 -10 am time for juried art drop off worked well and that Jurying Team should not arrive before 10am so that the potential rental artist do not communicate with the jurors before the jurying process. Lily also stated that in the past November and May were not good months for jurying and will not be scheduled months for the Committee. Lily will send out a call for artist approximately 15 days before each meeting. This will help both artists to be juried and the committed with advanced notice. The next Jurying Committee meeting is tentatively scheduled for October.

Monthly Show - Lynn Ely

1. Lynn said that recently there have been a few issues with Monthly Show participants wanting to submit both very large and weighty works that cannot be accommodated on the monthly show wall space. At present the monthly show diagonal size criteria is as follows: 17" and under - $12, 18-36" - $17 and 37" and greater - $22. She suggests that an upper diagonal size limit be set for entries and also a weight limit. Janet suggested that she monitor existing acceptable piece sizes and weight while determining these limits. Carol volunteered to donate a suitcase hanger scale to the gallery for weighing artwork when necessary.
2. Janet also suggested that the new limitations be communicated through the Monthly Show policies, Monthly Show Procedures and on the handout labeled "Monthly Show's Seven most Frequently Asked Questions".
3. Judianne said that there are a few new members that have made suggestion regarding hanging for the monthly shows.

Gallery Manager - Judianne Shannon

1. Judianne stated that there has been considerable damage to the floor caused by flooding in the adjacent restroom. She and Linda have been working with the Lumberyard management to look into the matter.
2. There has been a front desk change with removal of the cash register and a new cash drawer. Pam Waldman has created a new section for the Staff Training Manual to reflect these changes. Since a recent order for 100 copies of the present manual was ordered, they will be corrected to reflect these changes and added to the next edition when printed.
3. A suggestion was made by Ursula and Joyce from the Demo Committee for "Show and Sell" and was discussed in length by the gallery committee. It was determined that the present "Featured Artist" and Demo displays were enough exposure for our artists.
4. Shoplifter report: the person that is being monitored has been around less frequently and when he does come in he is directed out of the store without issues. Security cameras have been studied and at present the committee felt they were not needed. Staffers should be encouraged to walk the floor more often during their shift.
5. Judianne said that the new acrylic holders for medium and large 2D prints should be in any day and will be hung shortly. These will eliminate the need for most of the bins in the back. One might be kept for extra large works. The Card and 2D art now has a new process for logging and monitoring with a new cards filing system.
6. A Seasonal Themed Gift Center was discussed by Judianne. The space will be rented by any SDAG member but all items will be juried to qualify for the area. Participants that are present renters will not be required to have a additional job. Other member artists participating will need to assist with a job related to the STGC. Judianne will finalize procedures etc. and report to the committee. It was suggested that Judianne look into an alternative to the present Christmas tree for hanging holiday items.

Message from our New President: Linda Melvin

President's Message September 2018

September brings thought to mind as fall is rounding our corner. As leaves are changing so is the Board of Directors and it is an honor and a privilege to have been elected as President of SDAG. I am so excited and looking forward to this year meeting new members, exchanging ideas and creating new ways of sharing all of the artists extraordinary talents. When I first joined the gallery the one thing that stood out in my mind was it wasn't just a place of business or a guild but instead a family of artists who cared for each other in so many ways. It is my hope to keep the camaraderie between all of the members strong and continue to grow as this year passes. I am hoping that I will be able to meet as many of the artists and find out more about each of you. It's always nice when we can remember each others names, but how wonderful it would be if we could also learn more about each others lives outside of the gallery. I'm looking forward to hearing all of your input in ways to better the gallery and opportunities for us to grow in the community.

Message from our President: Linda Melvin

I have my broom and hat out and ready to go since fall is in the air. Temperatures will be cooling as the winds begin to blow. The wonderful colorful leaves inspire us all to be more creative in the fall season.

We are so fortunate in our gallery to have so many talented artists. We also have many activities to bring us all together to celebrate that talent. There are informal gatherings for members like "Show and Tell" as well as social events like the artist's reception (scheduled for the 13th of October.) I hope to see many of you at these fun events throughout the year to get to know you even better.

Linda Melvin

Encinitas Dia de los Muertos 2018

The 4th annual Dia de la los Muertos event will be celebrated on Saturday, October 27th from 12-4 p.m. at the Encinitas Community Center (1140 Oakcrest Park Drive).

The Guild's Board of Directors voted to have artists at an info table to promote the guild & gallery. There's space for 1 more artist to sell artwork. The art doesn't need to be related to the event's theme of Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) but if so, that's even better.

Check out the flyer and event information to see what fun family oriented activities are being offered. As in the past, Ballet Folklorico dancing, Mariachi bands, face painting, sugar skull & paper flower making are included. There will be ice cream & taco food carts and much more! The event is free and there'll be drawings to enter. All activities are free or of a minimal cost.

This event is lots of fun!

If you would like to be the second artist at the Guild's table or volunteer to help, please contact Susan Schulte at susan@schulte2001@yahoo.com

SDAG October 2018 Gallery Committee Meeting Minutes

US Bank @ El Camino Real

October 19, 2018 @ 10:30 am

Members Present: Judianne Shannon, Janet Scura, Carol Korfin, Lily Pourat, Joyce Nash

Members Absent: Sandy Heath, Ellen Cramer, Lynn Ely

Old Business

1. Membership Renewals - Judianne Shannon

At the last BOD meeting the issue of setting a cut off date for membership payments and the Gallery Committee was asked to determine the date and the outcome if not paid. Would the member lose their right to show their artwork until they had made their membership payment. It was agreed that for Active Memberships their status would be deactivated after Nov 1st (60 days) and that the Regular Membership status (those showing art in the gallery) would have a 30 day deadline of Oct 1st to make their payment. If an artist's payment is not received by that date, his or her artwork would be removed from the gallery until a payment was made.

2. Information Regarding Jurying Process - Judianne Shannon

The Jurying Committee recently put processes in place for jurying in new artists as renters. One outstanding item was when does the Jurying Coordinator need to receive the list of Monthly Show participants from Abadie so that she can verify that the artists to be juried in have shown in at least 3 Monthly Shows. It was determined that it would be best if she received the information by the 5th of the month following the Monthly Show Take-in.

3. Reception and/or Monthly Show Featured Artists consideration

There has been a request that SDAG/OTG consider featuring Veteran artists during next year's Veteran's Day in October. A lengthy discussion ensued and after reviewing various options the committee has tentatively decided that it would be nice for the Gallery to recognize our Gallery veteran artists as well as those in the community. It was decided that our SDAG/OTG renter artists would be recognized with a tag of some sort by their work (to be determined later) and that community veterans who would like to show their art at the gallery would be allowed to enter the October Monthly Show without becoming a member, receive a 50% discount on Monthly Show fee and be recognized as a Veteran by their artwork. Since the Monthly Show Chair was not at the meeting the plan would need to be presented to her for approval.

Monthly Show - Lynn Ely absent

Judianne mentioned that there were several Monthly Show participants that did not show for their assigned jobs that they had signed up for at the Monthly Show. The committee discussed that we should look at the processes that we have in place that might not communicate well enough the participants obligation to fulfill their assigned job. The Monthly Show 'No Show' Invoice was reviewed and it was felt that the fine for not showing for his/her job should be increased to $20 as well as the $10 fee if they had not signed up for a job. It is the committee's hope that this would stress the importance of the assigned job and would be a disincentive for not showing for an agreed assigned job. Signage at the MS Jobis table indicating the importance of a job commitment was recommended.

Calendar Chair - Carol Korfin

One of our current members has not paid his membership as well as not staffed his assigned shift. Carol has been unable to reach the member regarding these issues. It was recommended that Jeff Brosbe, 'No Show' Central Post so that he can send an invoice for not showing for his OTG staffing job.

Wall Co-Chairs - Janet Scura & Joyce Nash

1. Joyce Nash said that this past rotation was problematic for receiving payments. There is still one outstanding payment. She has been unable to reach the artist and was concerned that there might be a medical problem. Judianne said that she would follow up with the artist to make sure all was well.
2. It has been brought to the attention of the Wall Co-Chairs that on the morning after Thursday evenings rotation many of the supplies for hanging have been left out. Janet said that this has been reported several times and she for one was there at the last Thursday evening rotation and helped the assistant put away all supplies. There was one outstanding artist who had not hung when they left, This same artist hangs after hours since he works evenings. Jan recommended that we send a communications to him to make sure that he remember to put all supplies that he uses away when he finishes hanging.

3. It was brought to Joyce's attention that there was an artist that had hung this last rotation a quilted art piece without it being framed. It is the gallery policy that quilted artwork be framed. Joyce will send an email to the artist stating that it is the gallery policy that quilted art be framed

1. Lily worked with Linda on the last rotation for orientation to her new job and she had many questions for the committee.
2. She had at least one renter who didn't pay her rental fee. She has sent a notice to pay and has taken her work off the floor and placed in the back room. (what do we do with empty space because of this?)
3. Lily asked how the notification for rent due worked in the past prior to rotation. Joyce explained that she was told to send out a notice of upcoming rotation and a reminder that rental payment was due approximately 30 days prior to rotation. She sends a second notice 2 weeks before rotation and then another notice 1 week before rotation. It was agreed that having renters bring their payment on rotation day was very difficult to keep up with and all recommended that payment should be made prior to rotation day. It was also recommended that those renters that submit a payment to Joyce or Lily in the back office also email them to make sure they know a check is there and the artist can be checked that a payment was made
4. Lily also asked about those renters that can't staff but have someone staff for them. The committee said that anyone that sits for a renter must be trained as a staffer and SDAG member. The arrangement between the renter and their substitute is between them. There are several artists that have family members sit for them.

Jurying-in Coordinator - Lily Pourat

1. The committee discussed the number of artists needed to hold a jurying. Lily told them that many times people say that they want to be juried in and agree to be at the jurying meeting but do not show up. Because of this she always wants at least 5 interested artists before setting the meeting date. It was recommended that Lily put in her notice to the interested artists that it is important for them to let her know ahead of time if an he/she can't make it. This is a courtesy to both the other artists wishing to be juried-in and the jurors.

Gallery Manager - Judianne Shannon

1. Gallery Floor - Judianne and Linda Melvin have finally communicated with the Lumberyard Manager, Donna and her maintenance man regarding the water damage to the floor and wall in the gallery from the men's bathroom.. A leak was supposedly fixed but appears to still be there causing flooding in the gallery. It is tentatively schedule for repair to the wall on, Monday & Tuesday and if this is confirmed, the gallery will be closed both of those days. The staff would be notified by Sunday in this case.* (as of 10/21/2018 Lumberyard was a no show for Gallery Repairs-need to discuss problem further)
2. There have been more changes in the gallery. The wiring under the desk has been reworked and looks much neater and is safer. Judianne is still working on the acrylic bins for 2D wraps. They have been ordered and should be in shortly. These new bins will make room for the seasonal themed gift center.
3. Gallery Books: Gallery Training Manual, Staffing Guide and SDAG Reference Book are nearing completion. The present front desk book will be dedicated to staffing only. There will be a second book for staff training and a third book that will be a SDAG reference for all other policies,procedures, activities and forms.
4. Lastly, the committee needs to determine if the Digital Slide Show should continue. If yes, there needs to be a chair to make sure interested artists pay for representation, the images are updated regularly and images are photographed as needed. Judianne will discuss with Pam Waldman and Grace Swanson..

Off track gallery reopens: Local artists pull together to remedy plumbing mishap

Exhibiting artists at Off Track have been busily working toward reopening their gallery, which they did Nov. 6, after faulty plumbing caused a leak that seeped under the gallery floor, causing it to discolor and buckle.

The leakage began gradually, taking months before it became noticeable and possibly threatening to gallery contents. Gallery Manager Judianne Shannon and the guild's president, Linda Melvin, worked closely with the center's management and maintenance department to determine the extent of the damage and a course of action.

"Once it became obvious that the flooring had to be replaced, all artwork needed to be removed to prevent possible damage, especially to our display furnishings" Shannon said. "It's been a huge job, since more than 100 artists and several hundred pieces of art had to be moved out of our space and then be returned. But as is typical of our members, they responded quickly and were more than willing to help to get the job done."

Located in the Lumberyard Shopping Center, Off Track Gallery is owned and operated by the members of San Dieguito Art Guild. The gallery showcases fine art pieces, sculpture and other 3-dimensional artworks, jewelry and more.

The San Dieguito Art Guild (SDAG) is a nonprofit 501 (c) 3 organization that is dedicated to furthering artistic understanding and fostering artistic growth of members and the community at large by promoting interest, education, knowledge and skills in the visual arts.

Message from our President:Linda Melvin

This year is moving so quickly for me and the Thanksgiving Turkey, who is the star of the show. I know he would rather have beef be the meat of choice for this fun celebration. I have so much to be thankful for my friends, family and gallery family. The Off Track Gallery is such a close group, with all the gallery workers making it a wonderful place to share ideas, and working to make it all that we hope it can be for everyone.

This week has been especially busy, due to the water leak in the gallery. Judianne Shannon and I have been working with the renters, to empty all of the items on the floor, wall and monthly show. Also, thank you to all the Wall, Floor and Monthly show people that came in and took out all their items from the Gallery. I know this was a big change, and I appreciate that everyone adjusted their life to accommodate the work that need to be done. Saturday all the towers, stands and work area items were removed. The workers from Cornerstone will arrive on Monday and get the wall and floor problems addressed. It is our hope that we will be back in the gallery in approximately a week. Then, we can all put the gallery back together looking even better than before.

I hope everyone has a wonderful and fun filled Thanksgiving.

Message from our President: Linda Melvin

It is hard to believe that December is here! This year went so fast in many ways and slow in others. The Gallery has gone through many changes this year and the largest was the new floor and moving everything out and back into the space. The members pulled together and got the job done in a very short period of time. This month we have a lot going on such as the Holiday Tea on December 7 and the Reception for the Small Image Show. I hope to see you at these fun events.

Next month is the Annual Membership Meeting on January 12. Make sure to mark it on your calendar. It is always nice to see the members that have been with us for years and a pleasure to greet the new members who have recently joined the Guild.

I hope each of you have a healthy and happy holiday season and look forward to 2019.

Judge: Deron Cohen
Theme: Communication

I paint stories that I make up as I go along. Love, War, Peace, Spirit, Nature, Birth, Life, Death, the Mind and the Universe grapple with each other in a vivid explosion of color. Imagination runs wild and is made real in these images. Imagination is an infinite vessel filled with all our knowledge and everything else that will ever be. The images I create are designed to find a crack in your consciousness so they can seep into your mind and spark your imagination.
